

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2010 with funding from Lyrasis Members and Sloan Foundation

Aggie Hottentot Presents...

The 1946

Silhouette

Published by the STUDENTS OF AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE Dicatur, Georgia

Peggy Willmon Editor Martha Sunkes Business Manager

The 1946 Silhouette is in the hands of our Junior Editor, Miss Aggie Hottentot, who has come to us on a visit from her home land to see what fellow Hottentots are like. She's a snoopy little miss, and she got into everything immediately. Her dimpled charm, her spontaneous gaiety, and her sparkling and somewhat surprising comments on college life entranced us, and we coaxed her into helping us edit the Silhouette. But her personality swamped our feeble efforts at being witty, so we gave her full charge and let her manage the whole thing. We've fallen hopelessly in love with her, and we hope that everyone else will take her to their hearts, too. . . . Now, it's all yours, Aggie . . . fire away!

A Preview

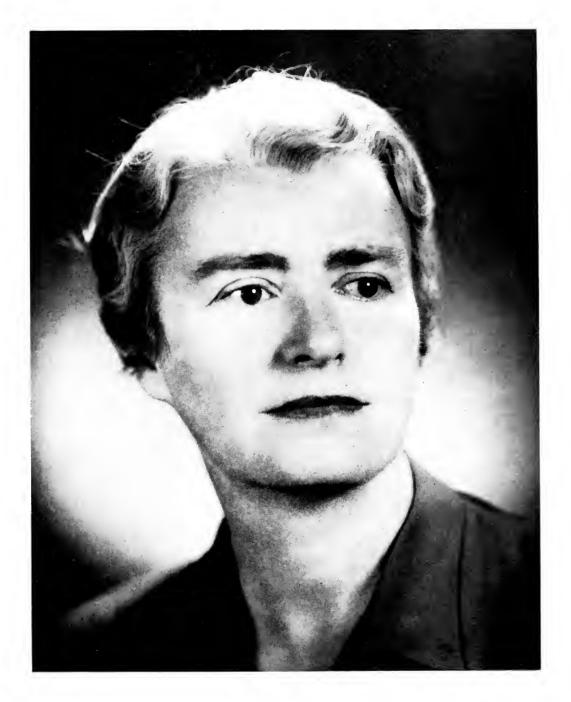

Dedication

Because of her singular combination of genuine intellect, sensitive understanding, and unaffected friendliness, we gratefully dedicate this, the 1946 Silhouette, to

MISS LESLIE JANET GAYLORD

MISS LESLIE JANET GAYLORD

Buttrick Hall — an atmosphere of scholarship and Gothic majesty.

Strolling around the campus...

Presser Hall — symbol of beauty and the fine arts.

The library - calm, dignified, and gracious.

... she sees impressive buildings

... whose rugged charm and dignity give to the campus a distinctive air in any season. Into them pass hundreds of students, who will study, play, and live for four years in the atmosphere of stimulation which finds its roots in the quiet strength symbolized by these buildings. Remembrance of college days is bound up inextricably with remembrance of Buttrick. Presser, and the library — classes. cokes, labs, quiet study, animated "bull-sessions," reverent chapel programs — days at Agnes Scott!

Pines and clouds in striking shadow patterns against the blue of the sky.

...and beautiful

scenery

All the charm of southern hospitality lies in the dignified pillars of the colonnade.

Fall, winter, and spring, Agnes Scott is a lovely campus. Fall makes of it a pageant of color with windswept skies and autumn leaves. Winter skies are background for the strong, clean-cut outlines of the buildings. With March comes all the delicacy of a southern spring – dogwood, wisteria, azaleas, and the new green of trees and grass. One would look far for a college campus more graced with natural loveliness!

...and places to play

ife is not all work, especially in college, igh revel predominates many times, at e Black Cat Stunt, the Junior Joint, and her festive occasions. The gaily decored gym is the scene of constant activity. air-a-dice is a wonderful place for dancg, gabbing, or eating. Murphy Candler ays willing hostess at open houses and offees. And the date parlors hold unqualled memories for students who have bent happy years at Agnes Scott. Oh, es, fun is definitely in the curriculum!

he gym holds memories of innumerable skits, parties, and athletic events.

...and work

Term papers, math problems, parallel reading — the library offers refuge to all who study.

But then again, there is ample room for work. Because the old proverb, "All work and no play . . .", applies backwards, too. Buttrick is equipped with roomy, airy class-rooms and, of course, the mail room and book-store! Sound-proof practice rooms make Presser the ideal spot for musical study. Day and night the science labs are well-occupied. And it goes without saying that the library is a perfect habitation for any type of concentration.

Lab is the scene of intense, fascinating research.

Morning watch adds meaning and inspiration to each day with its renewal of faith.

 \dots and

The right to worship as we please is sacred, and spiritual growth is one of the Agnes Scott ideals. We find sincere happiness here in quiet meditation and in Quiet meditation in the Round House brings peace to troubled and weary students.

reverent chapel services. God becomes real to us, and our religion becomes the vital force that helps us to live fuller, richer lives of service.

Faculty members hold high the torch of knowledge. From it we kindle similar torches and bear them flaming into aftercollege life. I'm very proud to present . . .

The Faculty

President James Ross McCain, aside from his duties as chief executive, has a genuine interest in all campus affairs. Often during the late afternoon he may be found among the crowd on the hockey field or at a basketball game, enjoying the athletic contests as much as any student.

Dr. McCain holds many important positions in both literary and religious fields. He is a senator of the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa, a member of the General Education Board of New York, and a very active member of the Decatur Presbyterian Church. All Agnes Scott students admire him for his dignity, friend!iness, and poise. President McCain is truly the embodiment of the Agnes Scott ideal.

The Administration

Mr. S. G. Stukes is, one of the busiest, as well as one of the most popular, people on campus. In addition to his duties as Registrar, he holds the positions of Dean of the Faculty and Professor of Psychology. Seniors turn to Mr. Stukes for some solution of the problem of what is to come after graduation; his advice is excellent, and his help is invaluable!

Mr. J. C. Tart, Business Manager-Treasurer, is never too busy for a smile and a friendly "hello." He simplifies our money problems and smoothly manages the complex financial matters of the college.

Our Assistant Business Manager-Treasurer, Mr. Howard MacGregor, and his family have become popular members of our college community. Our well groomed campus is largely a result of his tireless supervision.

Her duties both as Recorder and teacher of freshman English make Miss Margaret Ridley au important person on campus,

Miss Laura Steele is Dr. McCain's capable secretary. Since January of this year she has been on leave of absence, attending two sessions at Columbia University. Mrs. Willis Binford has taken her place for the remainder of the term.

Miss Martha Ray Lasseter has much to keep her busy as secretary to Mr. Stukes.

The very efficient secretary to Mr. Tart and Mr. MacGregor is Miss Helen Finger.

Top to bottom:

The innumerable details of registration never phase Mr. Stukes.

The business of the college runs smoothly under the supervision of Mr. Tart and Mr. MacGregor.

Miss Ridley and Miss Steele – two of the buiest people on campus.

Miss Lasseter and Miss Finger check over some records.

Charm, efficiency, and understanding combine to make Miss Scandrett the perfect dean.

Friendly and sympathetic response to students' problems and an air of calm efficiency have made the Dean's office a popular center of interest. It is the place where students not only sign up for cuts, look up schedules, and sign out for dates, but also go for a friendly chat with one of the gracious persons on duty there.

Miss Carrie Scandrett, Dean of Students, is known campus-wide as one who is personally interested in each individual student. She always has ready an encouraging word or a bit of helpful advice. Her gracious smile creates a friendly atmosphere wherever she goes.

Assistant Dean of Students is Miss Charlotte Hunter. She is especially helpful to the freshmen in advising them how to arrange their schedules, budget their time, and become adjusted to college life. Miss Hunter's sympathetic understanding and appealing personality have endeared her to everyone in the college community.

Mrs. L. A. Hunt, now secretary to the Dean of Students, is well-known by the student body.

A recent graduate of Agnes Scott, Miss Betty Bowman, is also

A recent graduate of Agnes Scott, Miss Betty Bowman, is also secretary to the Dean of Students. Her first year on campus in this capacity has been highly successful.

Miss Hunter's sincere and constructive interest has made her a favorite with the students.

The Dean

Warmth of personality and genuine scholarship characterize popular Mr. Hayes.

Associate Professor Ellen Douglass Leyburn is a source of inspiration to all who study under her. Illness kept her from teaching for some weeks, but she has now fully resumed her excellent work.

Miss Janef Preston, Assistant Professor of English, is welcomed back as a full-time instructor after a long illness. Her love of poetry makes Romantic and Victorian Poets come alive for the students who take her courses.

Miss Annie May Christie is Assistant Professor of English. She specializes in the field of American Literature and has made it a favorite course of English majors.

Miss Margaret Trotter is Assistant Professor of English and a well-liked member of the faculty. Her sweet personality has won her a place in the heart of everyone.

Miss Marian Blair joined the English faculty during winter quarter.

dimensioners

English

Remote Beowulf becomes vivid, and the problem of term papers becomes simpler under the guidance of the English faculty. Through its variety of courses and the valuable public lectures it sponsors, this department has touched the life of every student.

Mr. George P. Hayes is Professor of English. His sincere interest in students and in college activities has made him a favorite of all. His engagement-book is constantly filled with appointments to talk to students, coach debates, or be a welcome addition to social functions.

Miss Emma May Laney, Associate Professor of English, is universally known through her activities as chairman of the Faculty Committee of Lecture Association. She is admired by students and faculty alike for her scholarship and stimulation of students.

Miss Laney, Miss Leyburn, and Miss Preston pause on the steps of Buttrick.

Miss Christie stops by Miss Trotter's office to chat for a while, Presentation of today's world-wide problems in the light of foregoing events is a significant part of the history department's program. The varied courses which are offered keep pace with a changing world and enable the student to have an intelligent attitude as a world citizen.

Mrs. Catherine Strateman Sims, Associate Professor of History and Political Science, has become an integral part of the campus community through her very popular chapel talks on current events. Her penetrating insight into the problems of the present day enables her to teach courses which are vital for students interested in the government of the nation and the world.

Associate Professor of History and Political Science, Miss Florence Smith, stimulates the interest of many students in historical and governmental affairs with her instructive and varied lectures. The twinkle in her eye reveals also a quiet sense of humor which makes her a delightful person to know.

Miss Elizabeth Jackson, Associate Professor of History, is an unusually competent teacher. Her extensive knowledge of history makes her classes very informative. Miss Jackson is a member of the American Association of University Women.

Miss Smith refers to The Constitution for the answer to a governmental problem.

Mrs. Sims' friendly personality is accentuated by her gracious smile.

History

Miss Jackson studies a war map.

Miss Harn braves December's cold!

Miss Click and Miss Turner make ancient literature and history live for students today.

The boundaries of the world are disappearing, and nations are seeing the need for closer intercommunications. A study of the language and the literature of other nations plays, today, a vital role in the promotion of a better understanding among the world's people.

The French department is headed by Miss Lucile Alexander, who is also a member of the Electives Committee and an honorary member of Mortar Board. Miss Alexander's sincere admiration for her subject transfers itself to her students.

Miss Margaret Phythian, Associate Professor of French, is a graduate of Agnes Scott. She is characterized by a pleasant manner and a real knowledge of French.

Associate Professor of French, charming Miss Louise Hale, is also a member of the Faculty Committee of Lecture Association. Students have found in her both a personal friend and an inspiring teacher.

Acting Professor of Classical Languages and Literatures, Miss Kathryn Glick, opens the world of ancient Greece and Rome to her many students. Excellently-prepared lectures and thought-provoking questions make her classes stimulative both to the imagination and the intellect.

A welcome newcomer to the faculty is Miss Anne Turner, Instructor in Classical Languages and Literatures.

Miss Muriel Harn is Professor of German and Spanish. Her annual Christmas party, with a candle-lighted tree and a collection of beautiful figurines, has become famous. Miss Harn's knowledge of many languages makes her a delightfully cosmopolitan person.

Mrs. Florene Dunstan, Assistant Professor of Spanish, adds to her interesting classes with accounts of her summer visits to South America and Mexico.

A newcomer to the Spanish department is Assistant Professor Margaret L. Buchner. She has a curious collection of rings with very interesting backgrounds.

Miss Melissa Annis Cilley, Assistant Professor of Spanish, is a Spanish poetry enthusiast. She entertains her classes with fascinating accounts of her travels and with her famous collection of souvenirs.

Mrs. Dunstan prepares for her Spanish class.

Miss Buehner corrects a test paper.

Miss Cilley recalls many interesting experiences abroad.

Mathematics

As an incentive to orderly, logical reasoning and as a companion to science and music, mathematics has a steadily increasing appeal among the students.

Miss Leslie J. Gaylord is Assistant Professor of Mathematics. Her patience and her insight into the problems of all students of mathematics make her the ideal professor.

Mr. J. F. Messick is the Acting Professor of Mathematics during Mr. Robinson's absence.

Mr. Garber and Mr. Gillespie get together between lectures.

Bible

It is a tribute to the great influence exercised by the Bible department that the Bible lives for students and that students have found in courses in religion a source of spiritual inspiration for a better life on campus and off.

Mr. Paul Leslie Garber, Professor of Bible, spends a great deal of his spare time singing. He also likes to take flying trips to New York to see the latest plays. Truly a well-rounded person, he brings to his teaching a broad outlook which makes religion, as it should be, an integral part of all life.

Mr. James T. Gillespie is Associate Professor of Bible. In addition to teaching classes he has many duties as pastor of the church which he supplies. His courses give students a knowledge of the Bible as a text as well as the Word of God.

Curious materials from the laboratory fascinate Miss Omwake and Miss Dexter.

Philosophy, Education Psychology

Students in the Philosophy, Education, and Psychology departments gain a broader understanding of the human mind, principles of education, and trends of thought.

Mr. S. G. Stukes, Professor of Philosophy and Education, is noted for his inexhaustible supply of examples to illustrate psychological principles. As a sideline Mr. Stukes is interested in photography. His genial laugh and appreciative sense of humor have made him a general favorite, with faculty and students alike.

Miss Katherine Omwake, Associate Professor of Psychology and Education, is famous for her tantalizing anecdotes of psychological problems which have never been solved or have an unhappy ending. Under her skilled teaching psychology becomes a science applicable to practical everyday problems.

Associate Professor of Philosophy and Education is Miss Emily S. Dexter. Students thoroughly enjoy her classes because she enlivens them with extraordinary humor and interest. Miss Dexter spends her spare time painting china and collaborating with Miss Omwake on statistical surveys.

Economics and Sociology

Labor problems, the family, social theory, and racial problems come within the range of the Economics and Sociology department. In addition to students majoring in Economics and Sociology, those interested in world affairs, debating, and history find its courses helpful.

Miss Mildred R. Mell is Professor of Economics and Sociology. In her classes she seeks to apply theory to the events in the world today. She is particularly well-qualified for her position because she plays an active part in economic affairs outside the college. Besides teaching her many students, she offers them sincere friendship and capable advice.

Miss Gertrude Natusch, a newcomer to the faculty, is Instructor in Economics. She has an extensive library and is particularly interested in music, art, photography, and psychiatry.

Miss Mell joins Miss Natusch on the front steps of Buttrick.

Mr. Holt . . . beloved by all.

Miss Tanner and Miss McGinty, ready for an afternoon in the lab.

Sciences

Mr. Christian leaves for home.

Under the influence of revolutionary atomic research and discoveries of amazing drugs, the Science department has taken on added popularity and importance in the college curriculum.

Professor of Chemistry, Mr. Robert B. Holt, knows not only his students' names but also their home towns — and he can associate the two! As a pastime he enjoys a game of golf or a hand of bridge. His classes give the needed impetus to many an aspiring chemist.

Miss Philippa Gilchrist, besides being Associate Professor of Chemistry, is a gardener par excellence. Miss Gilchrist also collects wooden dogs as a hobby.

Miss Emma McGinty and Mrs. C. A. Stubblebine, who replaced Miss Jodele Tanner, are assistants in chemistry.

Professor of Physics and Astronomy is Mr. Schuyler M. Christian. He is famous for his dry jokes and his interesting demonstrations of the laws of physics. As a hobby Mr. Christian raises rabbits.

Miss Mary Stuart MacDougall, Professor of Biology, is an ardent movie fan and a lover of books. She particularly likes mystery novels and Andersen's and Grimm's Fairv Tales. As a biologist Miss MacDougall is famous nation-wide for her textbook and for important malaria research.

Miss Martha Jean Gower, a recent graduate of Agnes Scott, is Mr. Christian's assistant in physics.

Assistants in biology are Mrs. Martha Aiken Pendergrast, Miss Maysie Sloan Lyons, and Mrs. Ruth Gray Walker, who replaced Mrs. Jane Stilwell Espy.

Miss MacDougall in her favorite retreat.

Mrs. Pendergrast explains the mysteries of botany to Miss Gower.

Mrs. Espy and Miss Lyons - true biologists.

Mr. Forman and Mrs. Hamilton discuss the fine points of art.

Music

Music has come into its own this year at Agnes Scott, with a major being offered for the first time. This department contributes much to the gracious living on campus with its popular programs of music appreciation.

Mr. Christian W. Dieckmann is Professor of Music. He is noted for his pee – the Sherlock Holmes variety – and more seriously for his beautifully appropriate organ prefudes to chapel programs.

Mr. Lewis H. Johnson, Associate Professor of Music, is a member of the Appalachian Trail Builders. His secret desire is to spend all vacations on the beach at Miami, Florida. Students appreciate his sympathetic and skillful training of voices and his friendly warmth of personality.

A newcomer to this department is Miss Claire Buckmaster, Instructor in Music. She collects majolica, loves poetry, and in her spare time enjoys sketching. The chapel choir, under Miss Buckmaster's direction, has presented some lovely anthems this year.

Part-time teachers are Miss Ada Bartholomew, pianist, and Miss Ruth Dabney Smith, violinist.

Art

For the first time, an art major is being offered, in response to a growing interest among students. Further stimulus to art activities is Mr. H. C. Forman, Professor of Art. He is a devotee of Mexican art and is particularly interested in architecture.

Mrs. Leone B. Hamilton, Part-time Instructor in Art, believes that the artist must think in advance of his age. She is particularly interested in abstract and non-objective art.

Speech

The intricacies of speech training are useful and fun to master under the guidance of Miss Gooch and Miss Winter.

Miss Frances K. Gooch is the beloved head of the Speech department. She conducts classes in speech and instructs students in private lessons.

Miss Roberta Winter, Instructor in Speech, teaches freshmen the fundamentals of correct speaking and directs the productions of Blackfriars. Both teachers are instrumental in raising the speech of students to the cultural level appropriate for college people.

Miss Winter is an important part of all dramatic activities on campus.

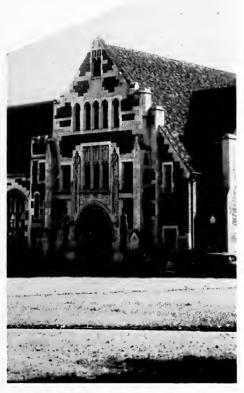

A favorite place for visitors because of its Gothic charm and for students because of its storehouse of knowledge, the library is a focal point of academic activities.

The quiet and dignified atmosphere of the library can be attributed to Miss Edna Ruth Hanley's supervision as librarian. She also plans the distinctive exhibits which appear on appropriate occasions and give added interest to the library. Miss Hanley's love for flowers inspired her to fill the window sills with the lovely pot plants that every student admires.

Willing to aid every student in "catalogue problems" are Miss Hanley's able assistants, Mrs. Woodbury, Misses Trammell. Black, Humphries, and Peeler. Their teamwork makes our library the smoothly-running, expertly-organized place that it is,

Library Staff

The library, source of information and refuge for study.

Miss Hanley - always ready to help.

Mrs. Woodbury and Misses Black, Peeler, Humphries, and Trammell take time out to pose for the cameraman.

An all-important group on campus is the Medical Staff, which works with the Physical Education department in seeing that every student is kept physically fit. Dr. Margaret V. Burns, completing her second year as college physician, has become an indispensable part of the college community. Through the attention and care she gives each student, she has kept the campus health-wise. This year Dr. Burns had a few cases of just about everything, from numps to nervous exhaustion. Her unflagging cheerfulness pulled her patients through all their ailments and established her reputation as a fine person.

Medical Staff

Physical Education

Fun and physical fitness for the college community are the aims of the Physical Education department. Throughout the year it offers to the students a wide variety of sports.

Miss Llewellyn Wilburn, Associate Professor of Physical Education, is in charge of the campus recreational activities. She is especially interested in basketball and hockey, and is a favorite of the students.

Assistant Professor of Physical Education is Mrs. Harriette Haynes Lapp, whose special interests are natural dancing and swimming. Her sweet and friendly disposition have endeared her to everyone.

Miss Wilburn gets ready for a badminton game.

Miss Barbara Ames is completing her second year at Agnes Scott as Assistant in Physical Education. She is extremely popular and an excellent instructor.

Miss Eugenie Dozier, instructor in modern, social, and folk dancing, has made her classes very popular with the students. Miss Dozier also directs the May Day program.

Mrs. Lapp relaxes between riding lessons.

Miss Ames leaves the gym after a hockey game.

College is what we make of it. Spirits quicken and minds mature during four years of living among friends and broadening our realms of knowledge. It's wonderful to be a member of . . .

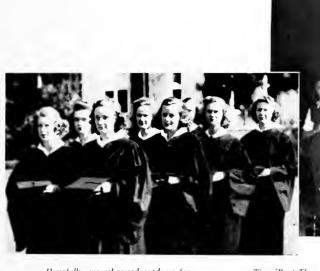

The Classes

Seniors

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Hopefully, we rehearsed outdoors for Investiture — but on THE day, it rained.

Tissy 'Bout-Through went up in smoke as we wailed and groaned.

In an awed voice one of the freshmen told me, "Aggie, those are the Seniors!" It seems that they've been here at Agnes Scott for four years, and they're leaving in June by some process known as graduation. Out of curiosity I snooped around to find out what had happened to them in those four years. They were a war class from the first, so they missed such things as stockings every night, formal dinners once a week, the Junior Banquet, and Senior Coffees. But they gained things, too. As freshmen they were the first to be able to double-date (not even a chaperone?), and as juniors they could go to night movies in Decatur. This year three seniors could go to Atlanta at night. Pretty independent gang, I'd say!

They even started a tradition. Instead of acting like children on Little Girls' Day, they had a picnic. Then they put on their long, black robes (over blue jeans), marched mournfully to the library, and burned an effigy of their childhood. Heavens, what peculiar customs civilized people have!

They had a lot of fun, those seniors, and they'll have a lot of memories to take home with them. I'm thoroughly convinced that college is a pretty good place to be!

Our chubby and adorable mascot, Cathie Christian.

Addison

ALEXANDER

Senior

JEANNE ADDISON Washington, D. C. English VICTORIA ALEXANDER Fayetteville, N. C. Biology-Chemistry

MARY LILLIAN ALLEN Dallas, Texas English

MARTHA CLARK BAKER Macon, Ga. History-English

ALLEN

BAKER

BEALER

BEAR

BEAVER

Class

BODIE

MARY LOUISE BEALER Atlanta, Ga. History-Political Science

LUCILE BEAVER
Gainesville, Ga.
Mathematics

 $\begin{array}{c} {\rm MARGARET\ BEAR} \\ {\rm Richmond, Va.} \\ {\it English} \end{array}$

CAROLYN BODIE Forest City, N. C History

Bowman

BRADFORD

BURNETT

JANE BOWMAN Johnson City, Tenn. History $\begin{array}{c} \text{EMILY ANN BRADFORD} \\ \text{Decatur, Ga.} \\ \textit{Psychology} \end{array}$

Senior

MARY CAROLINE CARGILL
Columbus, Ga.
English-Classics

CARGILL

CHEWNING

CLARK

JEAN CHEWNING

Jenkins, Ky.

English

Class

SARA JEAN CLARK Atlanta, Ga. English-History

COCHRANE

COURTENAY

MARY ANDERSON COURTENAY
Louisville, Ky.
Mathematics-Chemistry

CRANGLE

CUNNINGHAM

JOAN CRANGLE Delray Beach, Fla. Art-English NARVIE LU CUNNINGHAM Mobile, Ala. Mathematics-Psychology

Davis, E. E.

DEAN

DEVANE

Dickinson

DOROTHY ELLEN DEVANE Greenville, S. C. $Psychology \label{eq:proposed_prop$

FLEMING

JOYCE GILLELAND DICKINSON Atlanta, Ga. English-History

MARY MELL FLEMING Atlanta, Ga. Spanish

Senior Class

Fraser

FRIERSON

FULLER

CONRADINE FRASER
Atlanta, Ga.
Chemistry

 $\begin{array}{c} {\rm HARRIET\ FRIERSON} \\ {\rm Mt.\ Pleasant,\ Tenn.} \\ {\rm \it Science} \end{array}$

Senior

FRANCES JEAN FULLER Hazard, Ky. Psychology

GLORIA GAINES Anderson, S. C. Sociology

Gaines

GARDNER

GELLERSTEDT

LOUISE GARDNER Danville, Va. History

Class

MARY D. GELLERSTEDT Atlanta, Ga.

GORDON

GRIFFIN

ALICĘ CULPEPPER GORDON Daytona Beach, Fla. History-Political Science Economics-Sociology

LORRAINE GRIFFIN Decatur, Ga. Psychology

HALE

HARDY

JEANNE MURRAY HALE New Orleans, La. English-Psychology $\begin{array}{c} \text{MARY NANCY HARDY} \\ \text{Augusta, Ga.} \\ \text{\textit{Biology}} \end{array}$

HARRIET HARGROVE Atlanta, Ga. History-Political Science Economics-Sociology

NANCY MOORE HARRINGTON
Atlanta, Ga.
German-English

HARGROVE

HARRINGTON

HAYES HOPE

Horn

Howell

ELLEN MARIE HAYES $\label{eq:Decatur} \mbox{Decatur, Ga.} \\ English$

ELIZABETH HORN Mobile, Ala. Biology

BONNIE MIMS HOPE ${\bf Abingdon,\,Va.}$ ${\bf \it Biology}$

BETTY HOWELL
Atlanta, Ga.

Journalism

Senior Class

Ноут

Issacson

Јасов

ANN ROGERS HOYT
Atlanta, Ga.

Economics-Sociology

LOUISE ISSACSON Atlanta, Ga. Economics-Sociology

Senior

MARTHA SCOTT JOHNSON Richmond, Va. Economics-Sociology

Johnson

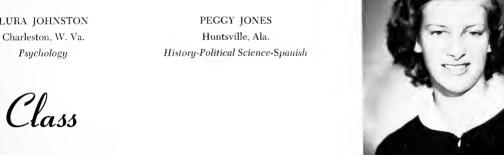

Johnston

JONES

LURA JOHNSTON Charleston, W. Va. Psychology

KARLSON

KINCAID

MARJORIE KARLSON Decatur, Ga. English

BARBARA KINCAID Moultrie, Ga. History-Psychology

Kirkpatrick

Kuniansky

MARIANNA KIRKPATRICK
Atlanta, Ga.
Chemistry-Mathematics

HATTYE KUNIANSKY Atlanta, Ga. Chemistry-Mathematics

ANNE CARTER LEE Decatur, Ga. History

> STRATTON LEE Danville, Ky. Biology

LEE, A.

LEE, S.

LIMBERT

MARTIN

McAllister

McCain

RUTH ELAINE LIMBERT
Atlanta, Ga.
Chemistry-Mathematics

HARRIET MealLISTER
Covington, Va.
English-Mathematics

MARY ELIZABETH MARTIN
Ware Shoals, S. C.
Psychology-Sociology-Economics

MILDRED McCAIN

Decatur, Ga.

Chemistry

Senior Class

65914

McConkey

MELCHOR

MIZELL

MARY FRANCES McCONKEY
Dalton, Ga.
Physics-Mathematics

GLORIA ANNE MELCHOR Atlanta, Ga. English-Psychology

Senior

MARGARET MIZELL Atlanta, Ga. English-History BETTY HANCOCK MOORE
Atlanta, Ga.
Mathematics

MOORE

MURRELL

Naab

ANNE DANDRIDGE MURRELL
Lynchburg, Va.
French-English

MARJORIE NAAB Atlanta, Ga. Science

NEVILLE

Class

Newton

ANNETTE NEVILLE Walhalla, S. C. Mathematics-Spanish JANE ANNE NEWTON Decatur, Ga. English

Noell

OATLEY

ANNE NOELL
Newport, Ark.
Economics-Sociology
History-Political Science

JANE OATLEY
Atlanta, Ga.
Chemistry-Mathematics

VERA MALLARD OREM
Decatur, Ga.
English-French

ELIZABETH ROBERTA OSBORNE Morganton, N. C. History-Political Science Economics-Sociology

OSBORNE

PARTEE

Patrick, B.

Ратвіск, М.

PEREZ

MARY PARTEE
Decatur, Ga.
Psychology-Sociology

EUGENIA MASON PATRICK ${\it Atlanta, Ga.} \\ {\it Biology-Psychology}$

BETTY PATRICK King's Mountain, N. C. History-Political Science

PEGGY PEREZ
Poughkeepsie, N. Y.
Sociology-Economics-Psychology

Senior Class

PHELPS

Polk

POWELL

BETTYE LEE PHELPS
Decatur, Ga.
Mathematics

MARTHA CLEMENTS POLK
Thomaston, Ga.
Mathematics-Physics

Senior

CELETTA RANSOM POWELL Thomasville, Ga. Economics-Sociology

DORIS ELIZABETH PURCELL Carnesville, Ga. Economics-Sociology

PURCELL

RAGLAND

REGISTER

MARY HARDING RAGLAND Richmond, Va. French

 $\begin{array}{ccc} \text{ANNE BAYNON REGISTER} \\ & \text{Fitzgerald, Ca.} \\ \hline \textit{Economics-Sociology-History} \\ & \textit{Political Science} \end{array}$

REYNOLDS

Class

 $R_{\rm EID}$

LOUISE NOELL REID Troutville, Va. Economics

ELEANOR REYNOLDS
Carlisle, Ky.
English

RICHARDSON

Robinson

SUSAN MYERS RICHARDSON ${\bf Augusta, Ga.} \\ {\bf \it Psychology}$

BETTY JANE ROBINSON
Bastrop, La.
Psychology-History

HELEN JORDAN ROPER Johnson City, Tenn. Physics

MARY CLAIRE ROWE LaGrange, Ga. Chemistry

ROPER

Rowe

RUSSELL

RYNER

SALE

SASSER

MARY BENSON RUSSELL Griffin, Ga. Mathematics

RUTH RYNER Vienna, Ga. Psychology

ROSALIND PRICE SASSER
Atlanta, Ga.
Chemistry-Mathematics

Senior Class

Scort

Seitzinger

SIMPSON

MARGARET ANDERSON SCOTT Rome, Ga. English-Psychology ANN SEITZINGER
Atlanta, Ga.
Chemistry

Senior

RUTH WINIFRID SIMPSON $\begin{aligned} \text{Gainesville, Fla.} \\ &\textit{English} \end{aligned}$

BETTYE MYRTLE SMITH $\label{eq:miami} \mbox{Miami, Fla.}$ English

SMITH

SMITH

Spragens

JANE SMITH Atlanta, Ga. French-English

DOROTHY SPRAGENS Lebanon, Ky. Mathematics-Physics

Starr, L.

Class

Starr, J.

MARY JETER STARR Calhoun, Ga. History-Political Science MARY LOUISE STARR
Dalton, Ga.
Psychology

STEPHENSON

Stewart

JEAN STEWART Gastonia, N. C. Science

 $\begin{array}{c} {\rm HELGA\ STIXRUD} \\ {\rm Luebo,\ Belgian\ Congo,\ Africa} \\ \hline French \end{array}$

MINNEWIL STORY Atlanta, Ga. Psychology

STIXBUD

STORY

STREET

SUNDY

SUNKES

Toole

DORIS STREET
Atlanta, Ga.
Chemistry

MARTHA SUNKES
Decatur, Ga.
Psychology

DAISY SUNDY Delray Beach, Fla. Spanish

MARGUERITE TOOLE Augusta, Ga. English-History

Senior Class

TRICE

TURNER

Van Dyke

PEGGY TRICE Decatur, Ga. Chemistry LUCY TURNER
Anniston, Ala.
History

Senior

MAUD VAN DYKE San Antonio, Texas English-Psychology MARY CATHERINE VINSANT
Memphis, Tenn.
History-Political Science

VINSANT

WADE

WALKER

KATHLEEN WADE Atlanta, Ga. Chemistry

SARAH ENGLISH WALKER Charlotte, N. C. Mathematics-Chemistry

Watson

Class

Weems

MARGUERITE M. WATSON Batesburg, S. C. History VERNA VAIL WEEMS Sebring. Fla. English

WEINSCHENK

Wilkinson

WINIFRED WILKINSON
Atlanta, Ga.
Spanish

EVA LEE WILLIAMS Waycross, Ga. Psychology

PEGGY VERDA WILLMON $\label{eq:Decatur} Decatur, Ga. \\ English-Mathematics$

WILLMON

ELISABETH WOODWARD
Chattanooga, Tenn.
English-Mathematics

WOODWARD

WRIGHT

LANELLE WRIGHT
Anniston, Ala.
History

Senior Class

Marie, Margaret, and Dot after a successful class meeting.

Juniors

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

DOROTHY PEACE .							President
MARGARET MCMANU	JS					Vice	e-President
MARIE ADAMS				Se	cr	etarı	ı-Treasurei

Next I met the juniors. They've been here for three years and are pretty important, too. From what I hear, they started life as upperclassmen with a "bang"! In September they were sponsors to the freshmen and helped them feel at home. October came, and with it came the Black Cat Stunt and hockey games on Friday afternoons. At night they were the perfect hostesses at the junior "nite-spot" – Pair-a-Dice, where everyone goes to eat, dance, and gab.

Betty and Mary Hanson cement sister class rela-

Lights - shadows - Squires.

During the winter, basketball and swimming lured them to the gym for class competition. They didn't neglect social life, either, 'cause they entertained the freshmen at a tea and invited the whole college community to their Junior Joint in February. Mortar Board and the juniors together gave some swellelegant, off-campus parties for the freshmen (to which men were also invited!). For the first time since 1943 they took time out from term papers, tests, and the "stacks" to have a Junior Banquet.

Now exams are over, and they gleefully tell me that next year, they—the class of '47—will be "top men on the totem pole!" All of which means, I gather, that they'll be glad to be seniors!

Adams
Aichel
Allen
Andrews
Asbury
Barksdale

BEALE
BEARDSLEY
BEESON
BENNETT
BENTON
BOND

BORN
BROWN
BUCHANAN
BURGKHART
CALLEY
CLARKSON

COLEY
COOKE
COOLEY
CRABILL
CRAIG
CURRIE

Junior Class

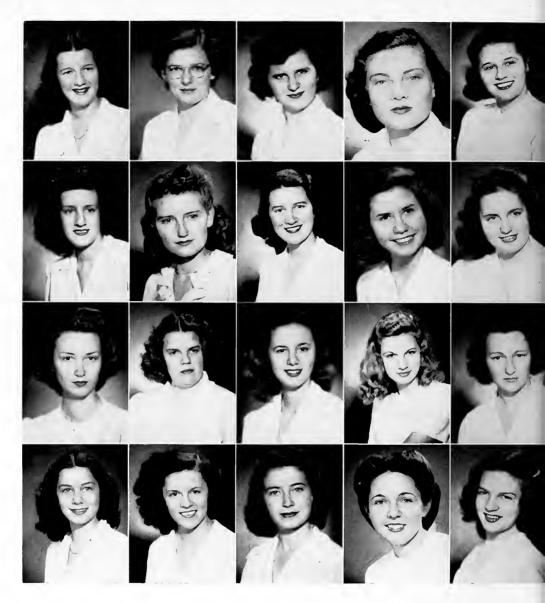

Marie Adams Seneca, S. C.
Louisa Aichel Jacksonville, Fla.
Betty Allen Louisville, Ky.
BETTY ANDREWS Flat Rock, N. C.
ISABEL ASBURY Greenville, S. C.
VIRGINIA BARKSDALE Waynesboro, Va
GLASSELL BEALE Bowling Green, Va.
ALICE McCarthy Beardsley Dunedin, Fla.
MARIE BEESON Burnsville, N. C.
Dale Bennett
JOANNE BENTON
Margaret Bond Charleston, W. Va.
Margurite Born Atlanta, Ga.
Valeria Brown Fort Valley, Ga.
KATHLEEN BUCHANAN
Anne Burckhardt Atlanta, Ga.
ELEANOR CALLEY
Charlotte Clarkson Atlanta, Ga.
June Coley Atlanta, Ga.
JANE COOKE Louisville, Ky.
Sarah Cooley Atlanta, Ga.
BETTY CRABILL Atlanta, Ga.
MARY ANN CRAIC Spruce Pine, N. C.
HELEN CATHERINE CURRIE Rocky River, Ohio

DICKSON
DOBBINS
DUNSTAN
DU PRE
EIDSON
ELLIS, K.

ELLIS, R.
ESTES
EVANS
FISHER
FORD
FULLER

GALLOWAY
GILCHRIST
GILES
GLINDMEYER
GOODE
GRANT

GROVE
HAGERTY
HARNSBERGER
HARPER
HABRIS, L.
HARRIS, M.

Junior Class

Virginia Dickson Atlanta, Ga.
Anna George Dobbins Gantt's Quarry, Ala.
DOROTHY DUNSTAN Decatur, Ga.
Anne Roberts du Pre Atlanta, Ga.
Anne Eidson Thomasville, Ga.
Kate Ellis Owatonna, Minn.
RUTH ELLIS
Jean Estes Atlanta, Ga.
MILDRED EVANS Wilmington, N. C.
James Nelson Fisher Nashville, Tenn.
Frances Ford Richmond, Va.
Mary Jane Fuller Neptune Beach, Fla.
Dorothy Galloway Atlanta, Ga.
Carolyn Gilchrist Atlanta, Ga.
Carol Giles Avondale Estates, Ga.
RUTH JEAN GLINDMEYER Covington, Ky.
Gene Goode Augusta, Ga.
Polly Grant Atlanta, Ga.
Mynelle Grove Atlanta, Ga.
Anne Hagerty Decatur, Ga.
Agnes Harnsberger Brunswick, Ga.
Genevieve Harper Baxley, Ga.
LILAINE HARRIS Cordele, Ga.
Marjorie Behm Harris Waycross, Ga.

HARRIS, M. E. HEERY HILL HORNE Hough Ноут HUTCHENS Jackson Јасов JEFFRIES Johnson Jones KELLY, A. KELLY, M. Кемр Kinard KISSLING KNIGHT KNOCH LEE LIDDELL Love MAHON MARTIN

Junior Class

Mary Emily Harris Asheville, N. C.
Genet Hefry Decatur, Ga.
EVELYN WILLIAMS HILL Orange, Va.
Peggy Pat Horne Marion, Va.
Ann Graham Hough Shaw, Miss.
Louise Hoyt Atlanta, Ga.
Sue Withers Hutchens
Anne Hill Jackson
JANE JACOB Decatur, Ga.
Marianne Jeffries Thomasville, Ga.
Kathryn Johnson Columbus, Ga.
ROSEMARY JONES Vinings, Ga.
Anne Kelly Augusta, Ga.
Margaret Kelly Lebanon, Ky.
THERESA KEMP
Margaret Kinard Clemson, S. C.
Doris Virginia Kissling Jacksonville, Fla.
Marion Knight Atlanta, Ga.
JOAN KNOCH Clarkston, Ga.
LIDIE LEE Atlanta, Ga.
JANET LIDDELL Camden, Ala.
Mary Jane Love
Mary Brown Mahon Greenville, S. C.
MARY ANN MARTIN Decatur, Ga.

Junior Class

Marguerite Mattison Anderson, S. C.
Peggy Mauney Atlanta, Ga.
Mary McCalla Greenville, S. C.
GLORIA MCKEE Atlanta, Ga.
Margaret McManus Greenville, S.C.
Jane Meadows Atlanta, Ga.
Formy Memory
Edith Merrin Gainesville, Fla.
Mariella Miller Decatur, Ga.
ALICE NEWMAN Versailles, Ky.
VIRGINIA OWENS Roanoke, Ala.
FLORENCE PAISLEY Eudora, Ark.
Angela Pardington Winston-Salem, N. C.
BET PATTERSON Winston-Salem, N. C.
DOROTHY ANN PEACE Greenville, S. C.
SOPHIA PEDAKIS Pensacola, Fla.
HELEN POPE Homestead, Fla.
Betty Jean Radford Decatur, Ga.
Jeannie Rentz Atlanta, Ga.
,
r
Doris Riddick Atlanta, Ga.
Ellen Rosenblatt Atlanta, Ga.
Lorenna Jane Ross Charlotte, N. C.
Betty Routsos Atlanta, Ga.
Nellie Louise Scott Decatur, Ga.
Nancy Shelton Atlanta, Ga.

SHOLES
SMITH, B.
SMITH, S.
SMOOT
SPROESSER
SQUIRES

TAYLOR
TERRELL
THOMASON
TURNER
WADLINGTON
WALTON

WHEELER
WILLIAMS, J.
WILLIAMS, M.
WILSON
WINCHESTER
YATES

Zeigler

Junior Class

Frances Sholes	Lynchburg, Va.
Barbara Wingate Smith	Decatur, Ga.
Sarah Smith	Decatur, Ga.
Jean Smoot	Decatur, Ga.
Barbara Sproesser	Ft. Benning, Ga.
CAROLINE JANE SQUIRES	Charlotte, N. C.
Laura Carroll Taylor	Atlanta, Ga.
JUNE BLOXTON TERRELL	Atlanta, Ga.
JUNE THOMASON	Copperhill, Tenn.
BETTY WARREN TURNER	Thomasville, Ga.
DOROTHY WADLINGTON	Kosciusko, Miss.
Laura Elizabeth Walton	Hamilton, Ga.
	C to all Co
Ann Wheeler
Emma Jean Williams
MARY WALKER WILLIAMS
Barrara Wilson
Laura Winchester
Christina Jean Yates	Augusta, Ga.

Bamburg, S. C.

BETTY ANN ZEIGLER

Leading the Sophs has Lou up a tree.

"We want to stroke that kitty's fur . . ."

"All work and no play . . ." - We play!

The seniors show the sophs the daisy-picking technique.

Pagie, Lou, and Lida have led the sophs to many a victory.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

The sophomore class is another "go-getting gang." I talked to several of them, and their history reads like a success story. In October they walked away with the Black Cat, a famous animal on campus. Hockey, basketball, and swimming events found the sophs right in the midst of things, fall and winter. Investiture for the seniors turned out to be a rainy day but the sophs helped brighten things up a bit. The traditional daisy chain got them out of bed at daybreak and kept them busy all day before Class Day. (Now, daisy-picking is something that even I can enjoy!)

Since the war had left so many people homeless, the sophs and seniors together adopted a war orphan and sent money, letters, gifts, and friendship overseas to a small helpless boy.

Enterprising creatures, the sophs decided to have a "Pin-up" contest which would establish the supremacy of certain lucky male admirers of the fair student body. Good idea, I'd call it!

Oh, they led an interesting life, there's no doubt about it! Their funloving spirits and smooth efficiency made an indefinable, but happy addition to the life of the whole campus and the college.

ABERNATHY
ADAMS
ALSOBBOOK
ANDREWS
ARMSTRONG

BLAIR, R. Brewer Brown Bryant Bussey

Ветту Авн	ERNATHY
Gastonia	, N. C.

Ann Ballard Augusta, Ga.

Ruth Blair Atlanta, Ga.

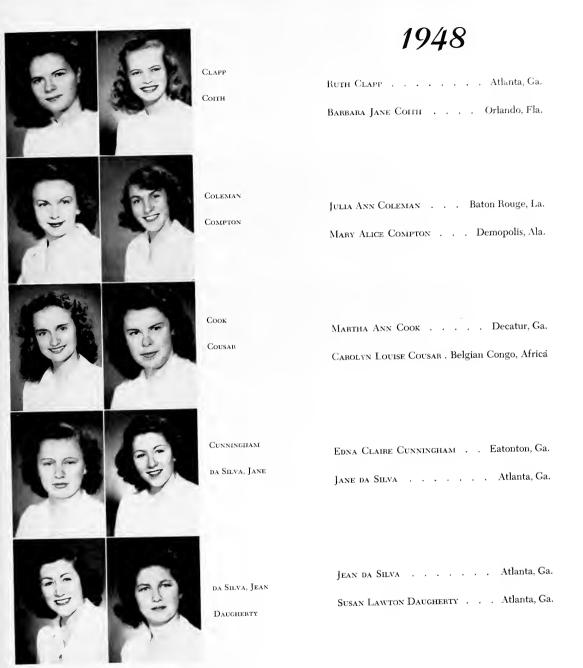

Dabney Adams Asheville, N. C. JANE ARBERY BARKER
Anniston, Ala.

Lela Anne Brewer Birmingham, Ala.

Jane Alsobrook New Orleans, La. Martiia Beacham Decatur, Ga. BETTY JEAN BROWN Birmingham, Ala.

VIRGINIA ANDREWS St. Louis, Mo. Jean Bellingrath Rabun Gap, Ga. FLORA BRYANT Memphis, Tenn.

Rose Ellen Armstrong Decatur, Ga. Barbara Blair Gastonia, N. C. Sally Bussey Augusta, Ga.

Sophomore Class

Davidson
Davis
Deal
Dieckmann
Doyle

Driskili.
Dunn
Durant
Elcan
Ezzard

FAULKNER FEAGLE FIELD GATTIS GEE

ALICE CALDWELL DAVIDSON Charlotte, N. C. June Hamlet Driskill Lynchburg, Va. Josephine Faulkner Russellville, Ark.

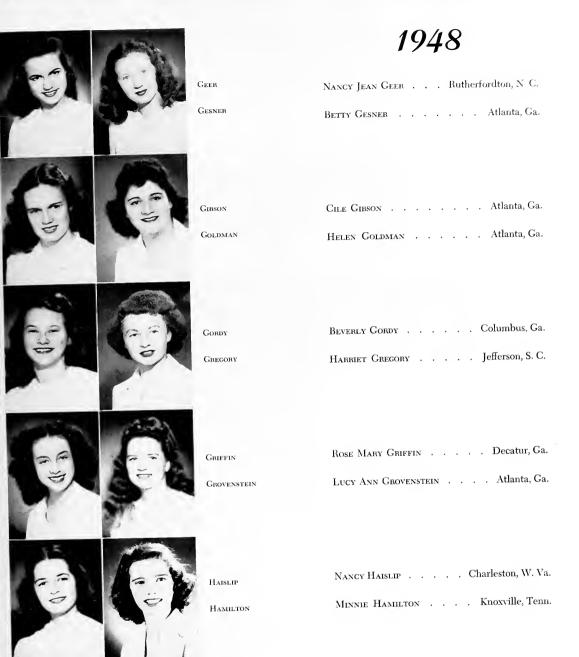

Amelia Davis West Point, Ga. Elizabeth Dunn Atlanta, Ga.

Edith Feagle Decatur, Ga.

Nancy Lou Deal Forest City, N. C. Grace Harris Durant Mobile, Ala. Lillian Field Atlanta, Ga.

Adele Dieckmann Decatur, Ga. Anne Rebekah Elcan Blacksburg, Va. June Gattis Atlanta, Ga.

Betty Jo Doyle Decatur, Ga. Anne Ezzard Roswell, Ga. Joanna Gee Atlanta, Ga.

Sophomore Class

HATCH HAYES HENRY HEVENER HEWSON

HODGES
HOLLANDSWORTH
HONOUR
HULSEY
HUMBER

HUMPHRIES IRVINE JACKSON JONES, B. JONES, M. C.

Mary Stuart Hatch Charlotte, N. C.

Anne Florine Hayes Decatur, Ga.

> VIRGINIA HENRY Roswell, N. M.

Charlotte Anne Hevener Hightown, Va.

> KATHLEEN HEWSON Charlotte, N. C.

Caroline Hodges Atlanta, Ga.

MARIANNA HOLLANDSWORTH
Covington, Va.

Nan Honour Atlanta, Ga.

Amanda Hulsey Gainesville, Ga.

Martha Humber Clarksdale, Miss. MARY HUMPHRIES Atlanta, Ga.

June Lewis Irvine Hampton, Va.

Mary Elizabeth Jackson Atlanta, Ga.

> Beth Jones Vinings, Ga.

Mildred Claire Jones
Thomaston, Ga.

Sophomore Class

MANLY
MARIANI
MCLAURIN
MCMANMON
MEADERS

MORRISON
NEIDLINGER
NETTLES
NEVILLE
NININGER

Mary Manly Dalton, Ga.

Myrtice Mariani Bessemer, Ala.

Louise McLaurin Dillon, S. C.

Patricia Ann McManmon Atlanta, Ga.

Martha Sue Meaders Atlanta, Ga. Mary Ellen Morrison Spartanburg, S. C.

Martha Neidlinger Atlanta, Ga.

> Nan Nettles Leo, S. C.

Susan Neville Garanhuns, Pernambuco, Brazil

> Fran Nininger Roanoke, Va.

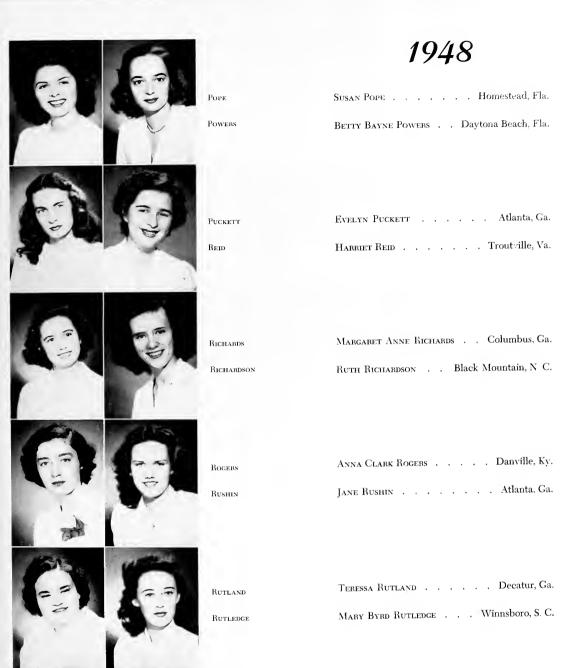

Vannesse Orr Rockwood, Tenn.

Mae Comer Osborne Morganton, N. C.

> Ann Patterson Cuthbert, Ga.

JENN PAYNE Decatur, Ga.

Margaret Clay Pirtle Savannah, Ga.

Sophomore Class

SAXON
SHEPHERD
SIMMS
SIMS
SMITH

SPROESSER
STANTON
STEWART, D.
STEWART, G.
STEWART, J.

TREADWELL
TUCKER
VAN DE ERVE
VIOLETTE
WALKER

Zollie Anne Saxon Fort Valley, Ga. Ann Sproesser Ft. Benning, Ga. Anne Treadwell
Decatur, Ga.

Anne Shepherd Decatur, Ga. DOROTHY STANTON
Atlanta, Ga.

Virginia Tucker Alexandria, Va.

CHARLIEN SIMMS Dothan, Ala. Dorothy Stewart Atlanta, Ga. Janet van de Erve Charleston, S. C.

MARY GENE SIMS Dalton, Ga.

Gail Stewart Monroe, La. Anne Page Violette Hampton, Va.

June Smith Decatur, Ga. Jackie Stewart Atlanta, Ga. Lida Walker Atlanta, Ga.

Barbara Waugaman Atlanta, Ga. Bobbe Whipple Perry, Ga. TATTIE MAE WILLIAMS . . . Marietta, Ga. Anne Woodward . . . Chattanooga, Tenn.

Jenny Wren Decatur, Ga. Margaret Yancey Atlanta, Ga.

Marian Yancey Decatur, Ga.

YANCEY, MARIAN

Sophomore Class

Night-study.

Well, now we're getting down into my range! These freshmen were as new to Agnes Scott in September as I was, and we discovered the college together. I helped them in October on the Black Cat Stunt (at least, I yelled with them!). and in spite of not winning we had a lot of fun. They started to classes and got into the swing of things early in the quarter, showing great promise both in academic and athletic matters. In November they elected officers and really got organized as a class. Then came exams . . .

The New Year got a good start with a big freshman party which was a huge success. Then interest groups in drama, music, and literature began to claim a large share of interest. (I went to all of them. I couldn't bear to leave one out!)

Lo and behold, they walked away with all sorts of athletic prizes, including first place in the big swimming meet!

You can easily see that this class was a "humdinger," and I — ahem! — am proud to be classified as Aggie Hottentot, Freshman.

So sophisticated, these Frosh!

All those people to see one pal off for a week-end?

Well-l-ll . . . every class has at least ONE moron.

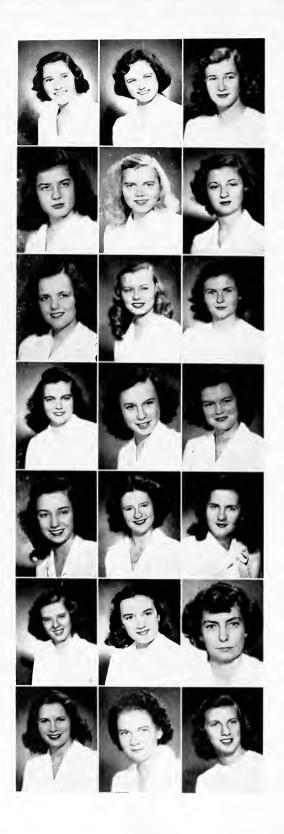

Reesie, Tilly, and Binky - three leaders of an outstanding freshman class.

Freshmen

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

Reese	Newton								President
Тпгл	ALEXANDI	ΞR					V	ice	-President
Binky	STUBBS .				S	eci	ete	aru	-Treasurer

RITA ADAMS Atlanta, Ga. FLORENCE AKERS Atlanta, Ga.
Gene Akin Birmingham, Ala.
M
Matilda Alexander Fayetteville, N. C. Dorothy Allain Avondale Estates, Ga.
Mary Jo Ammons Augusta, Ga.
Marijo Malakwa
Ann Anomore
Ann Anderson Griffin, S. C. Miriam Arnold Griffin, Ga.
JANET AURADA Atlanta, Ga.
,
BETTY LOU BAKER Atlanta Ca
Betty Lou Baker Atlanta, Ga. Beverly Baldwin Rockmart, Ga.
FAY BALL Atlanta, Ga.
Jo Barron Atlanta, Ga.
MARGARET BATTON Bessemer, Ala.
LOUISA BEALE Bowling Green, Ky.
Eleanor Murrah Bear Richmond, Va.
BETTY BEDDINGFIELD Vienna, Ga.
Phyllis Bishop Atlanta, Ga.
BETTY BLACKMON Columbus, Ga.
JULIA BLAKE Clearwater, Fla. ANN CABOL BLANTON Farmville, Va.
This Grade Deastos

Freshman Class

Martha Ann Board Pulaski, Va.	DOROTHY CAVE Roswell, New Mexico
Barbara Bostick Atlanta, Ga.	Barbara Cociiban Atlanta, Ga.
Susan Dowdell Bowling LaFayette, Ala.	Eleanor Compton Orlando, Fla.
Frances Brannan Atlanta, Ga.	Julianne Cook Atlanta, Ga.
Nelda Brantley Decatur, Ga.	Leonora Cousar Florence, S. C.
Betty Bridges Atlanta, Ga.	Helen Chawford Decatur, Ga.
Mariflyn Bridges Dawson, Ga.	ALICE CRENSHAW Bristol, Tenn.
MARYANNE BROWN Roanoke Rapids, N. C.	Josephine Culp Fort Mill, S. C.
ALICE JEAN CASWELL Atlanta, Ga.	Sidney Cummings Brinson, Ga.
ROBERTA CATHCART Anderson, S. C.	MILDRED CLAIRE CURTIS Memphis, Tenn.
MARIE HAGOOD CUTHBERTSON	Charlotte N. C.

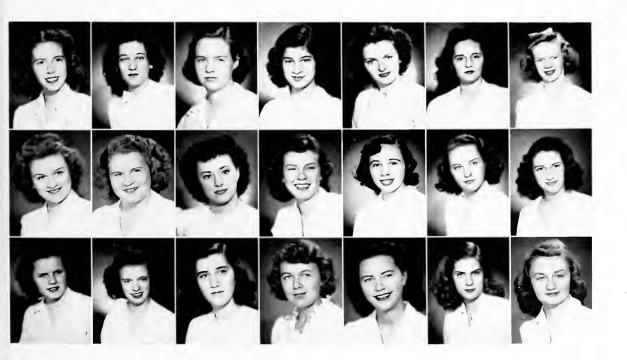

Katherine Davis Atlanta, Ga. Betty Davison Opelika, Ala. Betsy Ann Deal Forest City, N. C.
Margaret Steele Dendy Pelzer, S. C. Nancy Dendy Orlando, Fla. Mary Louise Durant Mobile, Ala.
JANE EFURD
KATE DURR ELMORE Montgomery, Ala. MARTHA FABRELL Charleston, W. Va. ANN FAUCETTE Bristol, Tenn.
MARY ELIZABETH FLANDERS Atlanta, Ca. DOT FLENNIKEN
BARBARA FRANKLIN Statesboro, Ga. BETTY LOU FRANKS Decatur, Ga. NANCY FRANCISCO Columbus, Ga.
JEAN FRASER Atlanta, Ga JANE BOWLING FRAZER Opelika, Ala MIA GAGE Atlanta, Ga

Freshman Class

Katherine Geffcken Atlanta, Ga.	Mary Hays Chamblee, Ga.
LOUISE GEHRKEN Charleston, W. Va.	Mary Heinz Columbia, S. C.
Martha Goddard Decatur, Ga.	Zora Hodges Atlanta, Ga.
MIRIAM GOLDSTEIN Manning, S. C.	NANCY HUEY Mt. Pleasant, Tenn.
Barbara Gordon Atlanta, Ga.	Joan Hungebford Atlanta, Ga.
Virginia Gordon Atlanta, Ga.	Marguerite Jacquelyn Jackson Atlanta, Ga.
Marjorie Graves Columbus, Ga.	Henrietta Claire Johnson Columbia, S. C.
JOYCE HALE Louisville, Miss.	Nan Johnson Jacksonville, Fla.
Margaret Hanier Hamer, S. C.	Vera Lee Knight Little Rock, Ark.
Jean Harper Tuscumbia, Ala.	Winifred Lambert Atlanta, Ga.
Joan Lawrence	Decatur, Ga.

(
	CHARLOTTE LEA Atlanta, Ga. ADELE LEE Decatur, Ga.
ŀ	KATHERINE LEE Decatur, Ga.
L	ORTON LEE Atlanta, Ga.
	Ruby Lehmann LaGrange, Ga.
Ĺ	OUISE REBECCA LEVER Winder, Ga.
ſ	Caroline Little Marietta, Ga.
	Frances Long Atlanta, Ga.
	Harriet Lurton Pensacola, Fla.
•	TARRET DON'TON'T
١	Marjorie Marks DeLand, Fla
	BETSEY VIRGINIA MARSH Bellerose, N. Y.
I	Patsy McGowan Nashville, Tenn.
ı	KATHERINE MCKOY Greenville, S. C.
ć	RENE McLeod Lockhart, Ala Gladys Merck Atlanta, Ga
`	SEADIS MEMORY
F	CRMA MILES DeFuniak Springs, Fla
I	VY PATRICIA MORRIS Charleston, W. Va.
I	VY PATRICIA MORRIS Charleston, W. Va
I	VY PATRICIA MORRIS Charleston, W. Va
I	VY PATRICIA MORRIS Charleston, W. Va
I	VY PATRICIA MORRIS Charleston, W. Va
I	VY PATRICIA MORRIS Charleston, W. Va. RUTH HUNT MORRIS New Bern, N. C. Dorothy Morrison Sanford, La
1	VY PATRICIA MORRIS Charleston, W. Va.

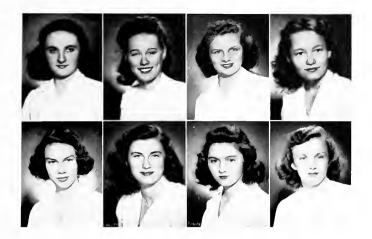

Freshman Class

Ellen Frances Page Burlington, Vt.	Peggy Pritard Atlanta, Ga.
Jesse Paget Greer, S. C.	DOROTHY PORTER Orlando, Fla.
Nancy Parks Durham, N. C.	Georgia Powell Thomasville, Ga.
Mary Hanson Partridge Boligee, Ala.	Mary Price Salt Lake City, Utah
Mary Frances Perry Ahoskie, N. C.	DOROTHY PHYLLIS QUILLIAN Atlanta, Ga.
Patricia Persohn Youngstown, N. Y.	Janet Quinn Decatur, Ga.
Eva Phillips Poseyville, Ind.	EVELYN RAFTEBY Waynesboro, Va.
KATHIE PHILLIFS East Point, Ga.	Mary Ramseur Columbia, S. C.
Lynn Phillips Helena, Ark.	BILLIE MAE REDD Emory University, Ga.
Mary Helen Phillips College Park, Ga.	Edrice Reynolds Doraville, Ga.
Johanna Richardson .	Dalton, Ga.

Frances Robeson Newport News, Va. Sarah Rogers Atlanta, Ga. Sara Belle Rosenberg Swainsboro, Ga.
MARY FRANCES RUSSELL Decatur, Ga.
Patricia Russell Columbia, Tenn. Betty Jo Sauer Vicksburg, Miss.
ROSARIO JUNE SERRALLES . Mercedita, Puerto Rico CARMEN SHAVER Atlanta, Ga. SHIRLEY SIMMONS Atlanta, Ga.
Mary Virginia Skinner Jacksonville, Fla. Annie Charles Smith Greensboro, N. C. Josephine Snow Raleigh, N. C.
MIRIAM STEELE Anniston, Ala. EDITH SUMNER STOWE
Doris Jeanne Sullivan Decatur, Ga. Jean Tollison Vidalia, Ga. Newell Turner Savannah, Ga.

SARA CATHERINE WILKINSON . . . Greenwood, S. C.

ANNE LOUISE WILSON . . . Natchez, Miss.

HARRIOTTE WINCHESTER Macon, Ga.

BETTY WOOD Ft. Valley, Ga.

Special Students

BETTY JEAN BARNES . . . Decatur, Ga.

ELIZABETH BLAIR . . . Atlanta, Ga.

ANN McCurdy Huches . . . Decatur, Ga.

MARY ELIZABETH NORAS Atlanta, Ga.

HELEN ANN STUBBS . . . Emory University, Ga.

LUCY THOMAS Decatur, Ga.

We sample a little bit of everything through participation in various organizations. Civic training, worship, creative labor, or just plain fnn --- these are the opportunities offered by our innumerable . . .

Activities

The Silhouette

Punky and Sweetie decide which pictures to put in the

The editorial staff — relaxing for once! . . . Left to right: Isabel Asbury, Mary McConkcy, Carroll Taylor, Peggy Perez, Jean Williams, Marianne Jeffries, Sweetie Calley, Marie Adams. . . . Second row: Joan Crangle, Eleanor Reynolds, Maud Van Dyke.

OFFICERS

Peggy Willmon Editor
Celetta Powell Associate Editor
Martha Sunkes Business Manager
Louise Aichel Advertising Manager
Sweetie Calley Assistant Editor
Punky Mattison Assistant Editor
Mary McConkey Class Editor
Peggy Perez Organization Editor
Harriett McAllister Sports Editor
Maude Van Dyke Feature Editor
Joan Crangle Art Editor
Eleanor Reynolds Snapshot Editor

Assisting the section editors was really fun! . . . Left to right: Marion Yancey, Margaret Yancey, Pagie Violette, Mildred Claire Jones, Bobbe Whipple, Betty Allen.

Sunkes and Louisa pause for breath.

As Junior Editor of the Silhouette, I can speak from experience when I say that the staff goes on the run all year! The photographer and I carried flash bulbs around all fall, taking pictures of everything! Then the staff got together, and we decided where to put the pictures after we got them! I was sort of a secret, so they made me hide until the Silhouette came out!

But by golly, I managed to get my picture on nearly every page, and I'm certainly doing all the talking. We hope we've given you a complete and lively survey of college life — we certainly enjoyed collecting it! For compliments or complaints, please see me in my private office in the mop closet downstairs in Murphey Candler.

Martha - the chief!

Just the type - Dale and Joanne spend their spare time at the printers.

Calley slaves! The specialists. . . . First row: Nellie Scott, Libby Woodward, Anne Woodward, Ruth Ryner. . . . Second row: Joyce Dickinson, Alice Beardsley, Anne Noell.

Agnes Scott News

Reporters, the girls who do the running! . . . First row, left to right: Mary Beth Little. Ginny Andrews, Mary Jane Fuller, "B.A." Zeigler, Mary Brown Mahon, E. Claire Cunningham. . . . Second row: Peggy Pat Horne, Eea Williams, Louise Reid, June Driskill, Lida Walker, Sheely Little, Lu McLaurin, Mildred Claire Jones. . . . Third row: Margaret Yancey, Valeria Brown, Pattie Dean, Mary Ellen Morrison, Dot Peace, Sara Jean Clark, Betty Allen, Margaret Kinard, Mae Osborne, Marian Yancey, "Teetoe" Williams, Peggy Perez.

Naney, Managing Editor - the girl who always makes the headlines!

STAFF

Martha Baker	Editor
Nancy Hardy Managing	Editor
JOANNE BENTON Assistant	Editor
Dale Bennett Assistant	Editor
Anne Noeli Editorial As	sistant
Nellie Scott Feature	Editor
RUTH RYNER Sports	Editor
ALICE BEARDSLEY Copy	Editor
LIBBY WOODWARD Society	Editor
JOYCE DICKINSON . Day Student Society	Editor
Peggy Jones Business M	anager
JANE ANNE NEWTON . Advertising M	anager
Doris Purcell Circulation M	anager

"Snooping should be right in your line," they told me as they made me silent partner on the gossip column of the Agnes Scott News. From there on, my life revolved madly around keyholes, typewriters, and Tuesday deadlines. My first snooping included discovering that the theme of the paper this year was NEWS and that they made several big eampus scoops. After people asked me pointedly, "Is your mind campused?" I realized that the News was also having a eampaign to challenge thought among the students.

This year marked the thirtieth anniversary for the paper, and the photostat of the first paper in the birthday issue made me realize what a progressive newsheet it really is!

Just a gathering of ad gatherers, . . . Left to right: Mae Comer Osborne, Mary Jane Schumacher, Mary McCalla, Alice Newman, Ann Hough.

The BRIGHT LIGHTS of the Aurora! . . . Let to right: Mary Beth Little, Carroll Taylor, Bet Patterson, Alice Davidson, Pagic Violette, 'Phia Pedakis, Ruth Simpson, Anne Murrell, Joan Crangle.

"The Aurora," they said, "is the campus literary magazine." It contains stories, poems, and articles written by students who have talent for writing. (I turned in an article on African hair-styles, but they couldn't decipher my diagrams!) This year it contained special write-ups of important world problems by the members of the debating club as an added feature, and they really put the campus up to date. A special bookreview page whetted interest in good books, too, and everyone is making a list of things they're going to read "when summer comes." I hope you'll pardon my sense of humor when I say that the Aurora reminds me of the Aurora Borealis 'cause they're both bright lights!

Members of Folio, the Freshman writing club, look forward to wider creative activities next year. . . . Seated on the floor: Mary Price, Anne Mason, "Easy" Beale. . . . Seated on the sofa: Jo Snow, Nancy Dendy, Lorton Lee, Katherine Geffeken, Beverly Baldwin, Hunt Morris.

OFFICERS

Shirley Cochrane Editor
Bunny Weems Managing Editor
Mary Cargill Assistant Editor
JOAN CRANCLE Art Editor
Anne Murrell Poetry Editor
JOYCE DICKINSON Business Manager

STAFF

Ruth Simpson, Sophia Pedakis, Bet Patterson, Dale Bennett, Alice Davidson, Pagie Violette, Mary Beth Little.

Bunny is Aurora's efficient Managing Editor.

Joyce Gilleland Dickinson has been involved in lots of Big Business this year.

Student Government Association

OFFICERS

Marjorie Naab		٠				President
MARY RUSSELL					Vice	-President
B. J. Radford						Secretary
Laura Winches	TER					Treasurer

My first real acquaintance with democracy was Student Government. The girls enforce their own rules here, and it really works. They told me, "Student Government is You." I sauntered around to find out what they meant. Th talks during Student Government to find out what they meant. The talks during Student Government Week informed me that every girl is a part of the honor system and the governing body. I approve of a government that gives parties like "The Fair," which had everything, including fortunetellers, hot dogs, and freaks. (People kept mistaking me for a freak, can you imagine?)

My Junior Sponsor showed me around and really got me acquainted with the ins and outs of collegiate life. The only drawback was hand-book classes, but I guess everyone has to learn the rules sometime.

the rules sometime.

In December I stowed away in the president's suitcase and went up to the Student Government Convention at Furman University. You know how conventions are, everyone talking their heads off about problems, honor systems, and elections!

This spring everyone voted to rejoin the National Student Federation of America. "Something like the League of Nations?" I asked, and they told me it was students from colleges all over the country.

So you see, because of all this, democracy gets my vote!

Marjorie Naab - the Big Boss!

Exec' wrangles with the campus' problems. . . . First row: Mary Russell, Laura Winchester. B. J. Radford, Dabncy Adams, Vickie Alexander, Jean Stewart, Lucile Beaver. . . . Second row: Rosemary Jones, Ann Seitzinger, Claire Rowe, Jane Meadows. . . Third row: Anne Register, Virginia Dickson, Amclia Davis, Marie Cuthbertson, Eleanor Bear, Mary Ann Craig, Adele Dieckmann, Anna George Dobbins, Marjorie Naab.

Lower House is composed of representatives from each hall in the dormitories and day student representatives. . . . First row, left to right: Gloria Gaines, Eleanor Davis. . . . Second row: Martha Humber, Elizabeth Williams, Jean Williams, Margaret Yancey, Ivy Morris, Mary Byrd Butledge, Peggy Perez. . . Third row: Louise Cousar, "Mac" Craig, Harriet Reid, Dot Flenniken, Martha Sunkes.

Lower House is the voice which carries campus opinion to 'exec' — and vice versa. . . . First row, left to right: Louise Hoyt, Frances Sholes. Marguerite Watson, Beth Jones. . . . Second row: Charlotte Clarkson, Anne Ezzard, Dot Porter, Doris Sullivan, Margaret Batton, Nancy Huey.

One of the attractions on the midway at the Student Covernment Fair.

OFFICERS

Dot Spragens					President
TEDDY BEAR			V	ice	e-President
BET PATTERSON					Secretary
Agnes Harnsberger					Treasurer

Dot has found her niche in student activities as President of C.A.

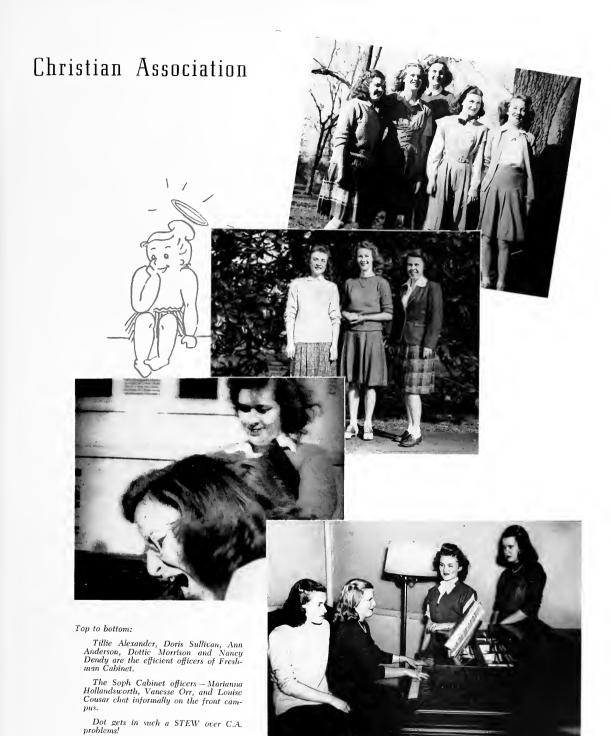

To find a beginning for Christian Association's many activities isn't easy. I guess it all started with us, the bewildered Freshman, C.A.'s guarding eye and helping hand saw that the "filling station" supper for the campus newcomers fulfilled its purpose, and then turned to the Interior Decoration Clinic which resulted in the rejuvenation of Imman. On the more serious side, we seekers of knowledge were satisfied by the interest groups in music, literature and dramatics.

Then for everybody C.A. had morning watch, Tuesday chapel periods, and even turned publisher by compiling a campus devotional booklet, plus a booklet containing notes from the significant campus speeches during the year. The highlight of the year was the Campus Mission week with four visiting speakers.

With organizations such as this on our campus, I say with C.A., "Guard what has been entrusted to you."

Cabinet's activities broaden the religious emphasis on campus. . . . First row: Betty Patrick, Dot Sprageus. . . . Second row: Nancy Deal, Agnes Harnsberger, Jeanne Addison. . . . Third row: Bet Patterson, Marianna Hollandsworth, Millie Evans, Janet Liddell. Fourth row: Mary Cargill, Ann Anderson, "Robin" Robinson, Helga Stixrud, Katherine Johnson, Teddy Bear.

Freshmen develop their interests, be they music, dramatics, or literature, under the leadership of Hunt Morris, Alice Crenshaw, Joyce Hale and Leonora Cousar.

Mortar Board members guard their favorite haunt — the library. . . . First row, left to right: Mildred McCain, Susan Richardson, Margaret Bear, Jeanne Addison, Stratton Lee. . . . Second row: Helen Roper, Sarah Walker, Dot Spragens, Marjorie Naab, Maggie Toole, Mary Russell, Victoria Alexander.

"Mortar Board," I mused. "Wonder if it could be a special brick-laying committee or something?" But someone told me that it is the honorary organization for outstanding senior leaders. The members are chosen for scholarship (that lets me out!), leadership, and service.

I snooped around and found a reading room in Rebekah that they sponsor. After looking at pictures for a while, I followed a gang of seniors and engaged girls to Mortar Board's marriage class. But they wouldn't let me in, cause I didn't have a ring. (The only ring I ever had was the one I used to wear in my nose!) They did invite me to one of their wonderful parties for underclassmen, though.

On Sunday night I loved to go to the open house in Murphy Candler. Social Standards Committee, created by Mortar Board, takes charge of it, and the fun-and-food are wonderful!

On top of all this, Mortar Board supports the English lectures, Art Appreciation half-hours, and Book Week. Now I see why the members are top-notch people!

Mortar Board

Leadership, scholarship, and service — that's Maggie.

Ah!! Desire of all and the mark of distinction which admits underclassmen to marriage class.

 $Mortar\ Board's\ reading\ room-a\ good\ place\ to\ relax.$

Mortar Board's competent faculty advisers: Dr. George P. Hayes, Miss Margaret Phythian, and Miss Emma Mac Lancy.

Phi Beta Kappa

Now, the organization with more brains than brawn is Phi Beta Kappa! Agnes Scott has had a chapter since 1926, and every spring several seniors with outstanding scholarship get elected to it. (I applied for membership, but they tell me that you have to study to belong—so I withdrew!) I discovered that Agnes Scott was the ninth women's college to have a chapter—hmm, sounds as if there were some fairly intelligent gals around! Anyway, Phi Beta Kappa promotes cultural interests on the campus and it's a really fine organization.

JEANNE ADDISON MARGARET BEAR LUCILLE BEAVER

SHIRLEY COCHRANE MARJORIE KARLSON STRATTON LEE

ANNE NOELL MARY RUSSELL RUTH SIMPSON

DOROTHY SPRAGENS PEGGY WILLMON ELISABETH WOODWARD

"Who, me?" Front row, left to right: Mary Russell, Dorothy Spragens, Jeanne Addison, Margaret Bear, Ruth Simpson, Marjorie Karlson. . . . Back row: Peggy Willmon, Anne Noell, Lucile Beaver, Stratton Lee. . . . Not present when picture was taken: Shirley Cochrane, Elisabeth Woodward.

First row Margaret Bond, Helen Currie, Margaret Kinard, Bet Patterson. . . . Sophia Pedakis, Betty Jean Radford, Laura Winchester, Christina Yates.

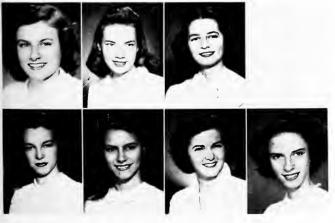

Honor Roll

SENIORS

SENIORS

First row: Jeanne Addison, Margaret Bear. . . .
Second row: Lucile Beaver, Shirley Graves
Cochrane. . . Third row: Nancy Hardy, Marjorie Karlson. . . . Fifth row: Martha Polk, Mary
Russell. . . Sixth row: Ruth Simpson, Dorothy
Spragens. . . Seventh row: Doris Street, Peggy
Willmon.

SOPHOMORES

First row: Dabney Adams, Jane Alsobrook, Nancy Haislip. . . . Second row: Nan Honour, Sheely Little, Pagie Violette, Margaret Yancey.

Maude Van Dyke, chairnan, leads War Council in its many worthwhile activities.

War Council members rest outside Murphy Candler after meeting to plan the War Fund Drive. . . . Left to right, first row: Nancy Deal, Maude Van Dyke, Nellie Scott. . . . Second row: Tina Hewson, Lura Johnston, Miss Phythian, Carol Giles.

Take it from one who knows — war is no fun. And now I'm all out for a peace that will mend the world for good and all. The best way we Hottentots could express such sentiments was through the War Council — or really the Rehabilitation (Heavens! what a word) Council. That's the campus organization that gives us the chance to give food and clothing to UNRRA, nickels and dimes to the Red Cross, the United War Fund, and the World Student Fund — all the worthy causes in need of a little help from us. They made me

General in charge of collecting nickels and dimes—just call me General Solicitor!

And money isn't all that we can give – sometimes a little time can be even more worthwhile. At least that's what the boys at Lawson Hospital tell us. And it wasn't only the boys who had fun at their dances. We Hottentots loved those Thursday night visits!

War Council, you see, has its serious and its lighter sides, and they both give us an opportunity to be useful citizens of our world.

War Council

Lecture Association

Now this is a case where, in spite of my talkative ways, I must sit back and listen. But who minds listening when such famous people as Marquis Childs and Emile Calliet and the Hottentots' "own poet," Robert Frost, are doing the talking? That's what Lecture Association does for us—gives us a chance to hear, right here on our own campus, the people we read about but never dream of seeing. Lecture Association is something special to the Agnes Scott campus. It strives to satisfy our intellectual curiosity by exposing us to the "men of the times," and it has been my favorite way of learning just who's who and what's what in this far-away land.

Lecture Association members meet with Miss Laney to offer suggestions for future speakers. . . . Left to right, first row: Bet Sale, Martie Mizell, Carol Giles, Lib Woodward. . . . Second row: Mary Beth Little, Nelson Fisher, Miss Laneu.

Eta Sigma Phi

Euripides - now who is he? That's what I asked the Eta Sigma Phi members. They're the campus classicists, the Greek and Latin students. They know a lot about classical philosophy and literature, 'cause I listened in on one of their meetings and heard them discussing it. My jungle back-If of one of their interings and heard them discussing it. My large background left me a little dubious about all these big words and ideas. But I soon learned, first hand, about the good times these Eta Sigma Phi scholars could have. Not only the campus benefited by their enthusiasm, but also the local high schools. (They gave the top students prizes.)

Confidentially, I'm even thinking of going "back to the Greeks" myself.

Mary Cargill, president, enjoys making plans for Eta Sigma Phi meetings.

Outstanding science students rest from their labors. . . . Left to right, first row: Mildred McCain, Bonny Hope, Sarah Walker, Elizabeth Horne, Jane Oatley, Doris Street. . . . Second row: B. J. Radford, Mary Russell, Kathleen Wade, Dot Spragens, Helen Currie. Chris Yates, Jean Stewart. . . . Back row: Vicky Alexander, Martha Polk, Blitz Roper, Laura Winchester, Mary Ann Courtenay.

The science hall rocked with the results of my interest in test tubes and levers! How was I to know that sodium and water wouldn't mix? It was an honest effort on my part to prove my interest in science, one of the requirements of Chi Beta Phi members. Oh, so much did I want to be one of the sixteen members invited to join what the science scholars call their national honorary scientific fraternity. Of course I couldn't expect to be recognized as an outstanding student in biology, chemistry, or physics — but as I was saying — my interest is sincere. So I'll listen attentively to the visiting speakers, and maybe next year they'll invite me to the banquet for new members. Yum — always thinking about food.

Chi Beta Phi

On their way to lab, Chi Beta Phi officers turn toward the Science Hall. . . Left to right: Jane Oatley, president; Stratton Lee, vice-president; Mary Ann Courtenay, treasurer; Jean Stewart, recording secretary; Laura Winchester, corresponding secretary.

Blackfriars

Blackfriars' Executive Board directs the Club's activities. Left to right, first row: Ann Jackson, Lanelle Wright, Alice Beardsley, Martha Polk. . . . Second row: Eleanor Reynolds, Margaret McManus, Lura Johnston, An Pardington. Memories of the tribal war-paint flashed across my excited mind when the production members of Blackfriars prepared me for my stage debut. Dramatics come easy to people like me; so they considered me a "natural" for the Hottentot's dramatic club. They even let me play Hamlet — in the privacy of a meeting! Those meetings — weren't they fun? Business was just a minor detail when you had parties and one-act skits to look forward to. Then, of course, there were the major productions. We had a wonderful time among ourselves producing "Pride and Prejudice" and "Hotel Universe;" I was back stage giving cues, working lights, and swinging on the curtain ropes. Ah, those proverbial lights of Broadway are really bringing out the native in me.

Aspiring actresses and apprentice stage managers compose the Blackfriars group. . . Left to right, first row: Pat McManmon, Martha Polk, lean Estes, Lidie Lee, Doris Kissling, Eleanor Reynolds. . . . Second row: Virginia Owens, Alice Beardsley, Ann Pardington, Lura Iohnston, Ann Jackson, Joan Benton, Kathleen Buchanan. . . Third row: Virginia Dickson, Gloria McKee, Ellen Hayes, B. J. Brown, Jean Rentz, Rite Watson, Laura Winchester. . . Fourth row: Bobbe Whitpple, Mary Emily Harris. . . Fifth row: Janet Van de Erve, Jane Smith, Sally Sue Stephenson, Nancy Shelton, Margaret McManus. . . Sixth row: Grace Durant, Jenny Wren, Anna George Dobbins, Iane Anne Newton, Lanelle Wright.

On their way to practice: Glee Club members pose on the steps of Presser. . . . Left to right, first row: Mary Martin, Helen Currie, Bobbe Whipple, Dot Spragens, Betty Patrick, Susan Bowling, Eloise Durant, Betty Jean Ellison. . . . Second row: Mary Russell, Eleanor Reynolds, Millie Evans, Ceva Harper, Steve Page. . . . Third row: Nancy Hardy, Marjorie Naab, Jean Stewart, Louise Aichel, Betty Smith, Kathleen Buchanan, Eva Williams, Miriam Steele, Barbara Sproesser, Anne Elcan, Jo Snow, Kate Elmore, Charlsie Smith. . . . Fourth row, Ruth Simpson, Vera Orem.

My jungle chants did little more than add variety to the Glee Club repertoire. I have suspected that it was the song in my heart that carried me through the Christmas Carol program and the production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Pirates of Penzance." But maybe the Georgia Tech warriors who joined us for both events could be considered a better source of inspiration. One way or the other, there was always music in the air wherever Glee Club members may have wandered. In chapel we were the choir, at Lawson Hospital and the Army Camps at least part of us were the Hottentots' Special Chorus, and at the Georgia Tech Concert we were just the Glee Club. Obviously we got around — and had such fun doing it!

Glee Club

Clee Club afficers enjoy one of "Pop" Johnson's jokes. . . Left to right: Helen Roper, president; Elzanor Reynolds, vice-president; Bobbe Whipple, secretary.

Fine Arts League

Brush and palate experts, Harding Ragland, secretary, Dot DeVane, vice-president, and Peggy Pat Horne, president, are considered primary among the colorful art students group.

League members view a possible scene for a landscape sketch. . . . Left to right, first row: Anne Elcan, Betzie Powers, Jean Estes, Joan Crangie, Betty Jo Sauer, Elcanor Compton, Janet Aurada. . . Second row: Dot DeVane, Anne Woodward, Minnewell Storey, Bunch Beaver, Peggy Jones, Ilclen Pope, Vera Orem. . . Third row: Mary Russell, Eva Williams, Harding Ragland, Susan Neville, Peggy Pat Horne, Frances Sholes, Mary Katherine Vinsant, Mary McConkey. . . Fourth row: Daisy Sundy, Betty Allen, Irene Jacobs, Sally Sue Stephenson. . . . Fifth row: June Thomason, Newell Turner, Mary Mell Fleming, Mary Frances Anderson, Mini Arnold, June Terrell, Barbara Macris, Jane Fraser, Mildred Curtis, Mae Comer Osborne.

Wandering through Buttrick unconcernedly one afternoon, I happened upon an amazing scene. Huge splotches of bright colors and paints and brushes surrounded me. To my surprise I was told that this was the art lab. As for all the people there—they were members of the Fine Arts League. My qualifications to join their meetings, so they told me, need only be an interest in anything from drawing and painting to sculpturing and architecture, and they would see to it that my knowledge of such was furthered. Sounded good to me then—and better after hearing lecturers like Philip R. Noble, Emil Holzhauer and Dr. Richard Aldrich. I'm taking a brush and palate home with me—after all, paint comes in handy sometimes in more ways than one.

Mr. Dieckmann, in the role of critic, listens to the String Ensemble's interpretation of Chopin. . . . Left to right, seated: Claire Kemper, Doris Kissling, Eloise Durant, Ruby Layman, Ruth Simpson. . . . Standing: Maxine Kickliter, Betty Crabill, Barbara Wilson, Grace Durant, Mr. Dieckmann.

String Ensemble

Stringed instruments and woodwinds I knew nothing about — the drum and chant had been my only exposure to music. But Mr. Dieckmann and his String Ensemble (what titles these Hottentots fancy) soon charmed me with music that soothed my native restlessness and relaxed these weary bones. For a busy Hottentot it was always a welcome treat. And another thing I liked about this String Ensemble — there was no such thing among them as government and taxes — those two worry-birds of life in these United States. Nope, no officers or dues among these new-found friends. That's music to these ears.

Pi Alpha Phi officers make arrangements for visiting debate teams. . . . Left to right: Alice Gordon, president; Marie Beeson, treasurer; Lib Osborne, vice-president; Peggy Pat Horne, social chairman; Louisa Aichel, secretary.

Free Trade is the topic under discussion between Georgia Tech and Agnes Scott debaters.

Pi Alpha Phi

The jargon of these college gals is bad enough, but I believe that the big and proper words (when they use them) are even worse. I was a bit bewildered at Pi Alpha Phi meetings where the debaters said everything just right. Of course Free Trade, the main topic of discussion, is of special interest to me, who could easily be considered an import. Although Free Trade took the floor at all the big tournaments, like Pi Alpha Phi's own All Southern Tournament right here, there were lots of smaller debates among the club members at the meetings. The special debate teams even went to the Crand-Eastern Tournament in Charlotte. Although I couldn't handle such fancy stuff, my education wouldn't be complete without Pi Alpha Phi.

Current events are the primary interest of the campus debaters.... First row, left to right: Lib Osborne, Peggy Jones, B. J. Brown.... Second row: Peggy Willmon, Dale Bennett.... Third row: Lidie Lee, Barbara Blair, Virginia Owens.... Fourth row: Betzie Powers, Margaret Kinard, Peggy Pat Horne.... Fifth row: Jane Meadows, Clarkie Rogers, Betty Jo Doyle.... Sixth row: Mae Comer Osborne, Marie Beeson, Mary Cargill... Seventh row: Louisa Aichel, Alice Gordon, Dr. Hayes.

International Relations Club was right up my alley. They had up-to-date news from all parts of the world, and I found out what was happening at home. The girls in the club must be practicing up for diplomatic service, 'cause members gave talks about international affairs and guest speakers did, too. You know, it's easier to understand some of the customs you run into in different countries after they are explained at I.R.C. meetings. Of course world affairs didn't occupy us all the time. We had a picnic, too, with all the trimmings — Hot dog! Well, anyway, as far as I'm concerned, the place to go for better understanding of the world we live in is to club meetings with the I.R.C.

International Relations Club

The powers behind IRC activities are Mary Katherine Vinsant, vice-president; Carol Giles, secretary; Marguerite Watson, president, and Harriette Hargrove, treasurer.

Spanish Club

Meeting by the sundial, Spanish Club officers discuss programs for future meetings. . . . Left to right: Marjorie Harris, treasurer; Joan Crangle, vice-president; Betty Smith, treasurer.

These language clubs are really fun! I went to some Spanish Club meetings, and there they all sat, talking sixty miles an hour like natives of Spain. We went to their annual Christmas party at Senorita Harn's house; she has a beautiful collection of figurines, and the refreshments were, shall we say, "muy interesante!" This year the club gave Blackfriars some keen competition with a colorful Spanish play and musical, "Fiesta de la Flor." Of course, I didn't understand a word of it, but the action spoke for itself! The club really got started this year, and the whole campus says, "Muchas gracias," tor their contributions to school life.

Spanish Club senoritas converse in Spanish by the Alumnac Garden pool. . . . Left to right, first row: Liz Jackson, Many Lillian Allen, Rosemary Griffin, Susan Neville, Marjorie Harris, Joan Crangle, Peggy Jones, Eleanor Davis. . . . Second row: Daisy Sundy, Pagie Violette, Mildred Claire Jones, Miss Buchner, Tattie Mac Williams, Peggy Pirtle, Betty Smith, Helen Pope, Fluff Paisley, Flo Bryant, Virginia Henry, June Terrell, Betty Patrick.

Kathryn Johnson, secretary; Anne Murrel, president; Helga Stixrud, vice-president, take French Club plans and problems in their stride.

French Club

Parlez-vous francais? Of course I didn't before they told me about the French Club. But now, after a whole year of songs and games at meetings and such interesting speakers as Emile Calliet, I've caught on to just how much fun French can be. But fun wasn't all that the club had to offer; the knowledge of the French language and customs that I acquired was amazing. Maybe it's me who's amazing, who knows? But probably it was the French Club meetings. (That's the way most people would look at it!) Just listen to me parler la langue — Tres bien, don't you think? Tres bien, don't you think?

Literary talents of BOZ members are expressed in the campus publications. . . . Left to right, first row: Pattie Dean, Anne Noell, Sara Jean Clark, Ruth Simpson, Edwina Davis, Jane Alsobrook. . . . Second row: Nancy Harrington, Ellen Hayes, Alice Davidson, Nelson Fisher, Phia Pedakis.

B. O. Z.

Obviously, I'm not a writer, but I do love to try my hand at it; so they told me that B. O. Z. was just what I was looking for. How right they were! Learning to write was one thing—then learning to read what I had written was another. But B. O. Z. meetings offered ample opportunity to practice both. (See how an education can improve your vocabulary?) As I was saying, it was at the B. O. Z. meetings that we creative writers laid ourselves wide open for criticism— and loved it!

Poetry Club

Reason, not rhyme introduced me to the Poetry Club. My reasons for being there were much better than my rhymes. I recognized an opportunity for a little thoughtful entertainment here. Everyone had fun when the aspiring poets practiced their talents and shared them with their equally talented fellow members. This happened once a month when yours truly, a straight prose immigrant, was given a seat in the corner in Miss Laney's "meeting parlor" to try to absorb a little of the poetry and a little of the criticism.

Now even I Am willing to try A poem.

Ruth Simpson, president, reads her favorite poem while Poetry Club members look on. . . . Left to right: Anne Murrell, Sara Jean Clark, Ruth Simpson, Jean Fuller, Mary Beth Little.

Bible Club members helped me to understand the spiritual ideal of the Agnes Scott campus. The work of these girls carries with it the same spirit as that of the missionaries in my country, and I've loved every minute I've spent with them. Our meetings were usually informal discussions about different phases of the Bible. First we studied the Sermon on the Mount, then the Book of James. And we had our lighter side too, the Fellowship Picnic. Such good times and so worthwhile! College life wouldn't be complete without these gals.

Bible Club

Various interpretation of the Bible are studied and disqussed by club members. . . . Left to right, first row: Eva Williams, Betty Patrick, Frances Sholes, Edith Merrin. . . . Second row: Mary Katherine Vinsant, Susan Neville, Mary Martin, Louise Cousar, Helga Stixrud, Barbara Smith, Fluff Paisley, Roberta McLaglen.

Between dances Cotillion Club officers change the records. . . . Peggy Jones, president; Janet Liddel, vice-president; Mary Manly, secretary.

"Come dance with us," they said, and food and music sounded too good to refuse. Cotillion Club members issued the invitation to me and to all the others whose dancing feet were getting itchy and whose social life was needing a little build-up. Twice a month my strictly primitive jitterbugging was tamed to the level of pretty girls in formals sweoning—"ah, Frankie"—plus lots of "brownies" and "cokes" to satisfy that empty spot. We had a party too—with men. Ah, me. Such fun. Africa was never like this! Twe learned to waltz, rumba, tango, and fox-trot—just wait till the kids at home see that!

Masters of the dance, Cotillion Club members sit one out.... Left to right, first row: Anne Woodward, Mary Manly, June Driscoll, Sweetie Calley, Louise McLaurin, Mary Jean Simms, Anne Patterson, Mildred Claire Jones, Louise Reid, Mary Beth Little.... Second row: Marianne Jeffries, June Thomason, Beth Walton, Peggy Jones, Jeter Starr, Jean Chewning, Lon Cunningham, Betty Turner, Lida Walker, Janet Liddell, Betty Jean Ellison.

Cotillion Club

Granddaughters' Club

Margaret Scott, president, and Lidie Lee, vice-president, lead the daughters of ex-Hottentots.

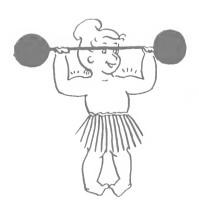

Here's where I come into my own. Here's where little Aggie tells these civilized Hottentots about their ancestry. Who is better qualified to be a member of the Granddaughters' Club than I am, even though my mother didn't go to Agnes Scott? After all, this Hottentot business started in my own back yard, so to speak. That's what I was telling them on Founder's Day when the Granddaughters sponsored a full day's entertainment for Alumnae, including a radio program (where I come from the only wireless is a drum-to-drum hook-up). The tales told about former Hottentots at club meetings will never cease to amaze me — or the daughters who tell them. Time marches on!

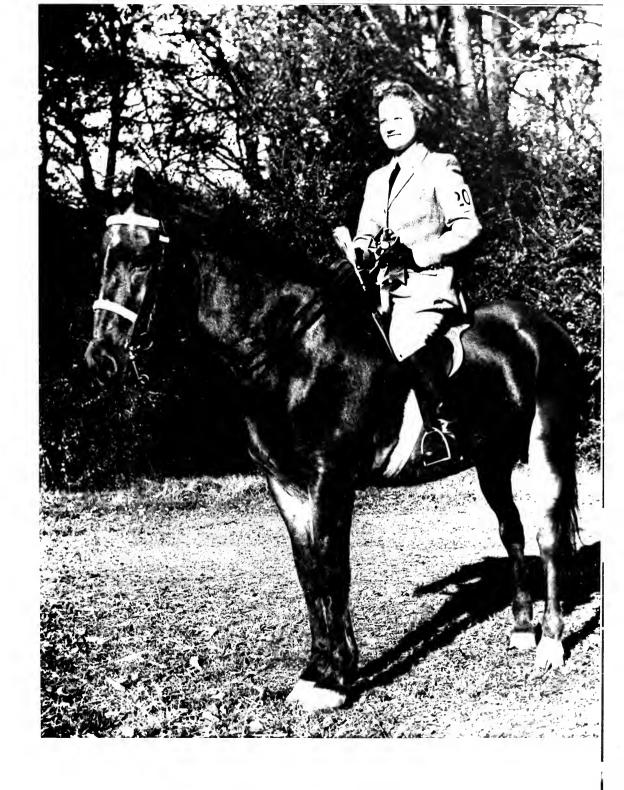

Agnes Scott's Granddaughters carry on the family tradition. . . . Left to right, seated: Valeria Brown, Nellie Scott, Reese, Newton. . . . Standing: Evelyn Foster, Marie Cuthbertson, Bobbe Whipple, Martha Farrell, Julia Ann Coleman.

Strong bodies are important. Sports offer development of strength, comradeship with fun-loving girls, and the opportunity to cultivate skill and accuracy of coordination. I'm all out for . . .

Athletics

Sarah Walker's wide interest and versatility in sports has centered the campus attention on Athletic Association.

ATHLETIC BOARD 1945-46

SARAH WALKER , , President
Sally Sue Stephenson Vice-President
Ann Hough Secretary
Genet Heery Treasurer
VIRGINIA TUCKER Archery
Scotty Johnson Tennis
Mary Ann Courtenay Badminton
Soozi Richardson
Jean Smoot Basketball
Cookie Miller Volleyball
Margaret Scott Swimming
Bettye Lee Phelps Outing Club
EVELYN HILL
RUTH RYNER News Representative
Sheely Little Publicity

Athletic Association

"It's Monday night and time for me to go to visit A. A. Board meeting. Let me tell you about Athletic Association. It is an organization which includes all of the Agnes Scott students. The purpose of A. A. is to promote interest in athletic and recreational activities among the students and to provide entertainment for the college community.

The Athletic Board, composed of four executive officers and the managers of the various sports, governs A. A.'s activities. This year's activities opened with a "Sports Nite." Everyone was invited down to the gym to swim, play volleyball, dance, eat, and to meet the leaders of A. A. On Halloween students gathered around a big bonfire by the gym and sang and ate apples. In the winter quarter A. A. sponsored a benefit bridge tournament to raise money to obtain outside basketball referees. Later in February "open house" was held at the gym where everyone played waterpolo or badminton, and ate. One of the highlights was A. A.'s chapel program when Lynford Keyes, assistant professor of physical education at Georgia Tech, spoke to the student body about the need for exercise and the effects of a large amount of calories.

This year the "Blue Horse" campaign was continued. It is hoped to have a squadron of bicycles on campus soon. A Bowling Club was begun this year and put on a trial basis. As yet, it has no manager on board.

All the members of class teams or athletic clubs were invited to the annual spring banquet when the new officers were installed. They closed a very successful athletic year."

Top to bottom: Fall brings crisp days and wonderful rides in the woods. . . Fast, accurate playing characterizes winter's basketball. . . . Archery and spring sunshine lure students outdoors.

It's hockey scason! Centers Scotty Johnson and Jean Frascr start the first game of the year.

HOCKEY SCORES

October 19: Senior (5) - Junior (1); Sophomore (3) - Freshmen (2)
October 26: Senior (3) - Sophomore (0); Junior (2) - Freshmen (0)
November 2: Senior (5) - Freshmen (3); Junior (6) - Sophomore (1)
November 9: Senior (3) - Junior (4); Sophomore (0) - Freshmen (2)
November 16: Senior (3) - Sophomore (0); Junior (1) - Freshmen (0)
November 23: Senior (4) - Freshmen (3); Junior (1) - Sophomore (2)

Soozi Richardson had her hands full with the job of hockey manager and as a player on the senior icam.

That's all folks! Miss Wilburn blows the closing whistle

"Oh! What a heautiful big green field! What do they play out here?" "Hockey." "What's that?" "Well, Aggie, it's a long story, but here's what happened out here this year. The season started with the sister classes joining to play on the Friday before the stunt. The senior-sophomore combined team defeated the junior-freshman team. In the following six weeks the interclass series was played. The senior team won in the series, winning five and losing one game. The freshmen began to be a threat at the end of the season, and they should do very well next year.

The varsity and sub-varsity teams were announced on November 23. The game between the two teams was played on November 30. The score was: Varsity 4, Sub-Varsity 0. At this time the hockey stick was awarded by the senior team to the most outstanding sophomore player – Edna Claire Cunningham.

This year's most unusual event was the joint game with the University of Georgia Hockey Club. The team came on December 7 and spent the afternoon on campus. The game was non-competitive, so the teams were joined – the Georgia backs and Agnes Scott forwards played the Agnes Scott backs and Georgia forwards. The experiment was successful, and both teams enjoyed it.

Hockey

Edna Claire Cunningham demonstrates the technique that won for her the coveled stick.

The Varsity-Faculty game was not held this year. In place of it, the Agnes Scott Hockey Club, composed of faculty, alumnae, and friends, played the Sub-Varsity on December 7."

Seniors and freshmen run upfield in one of the season's fastest games.

Is it a goal? Members of the junior team rest and watch their sister class battle the sophomores.

VARSITY HOCKEY TEAM

First row, left to right: Sarah Walker, Chris Yates, Kathryn Burnett, Helen Currie, Scotty Johnson, Alice Newman. . . Second row, left to right: Harding Ragland, Soozi Richardson, Gene Goode, Anna George Dobbins, Jean Smoot. . . Absent from picture are Bct Sale, Jean Fraser.

SENIOR HOCKEY TEAM

Knceling, left to right: Sarah Walker, Scotty Johnson, Bet Sale, Iean Chewning, Millie Mc-Cain. . . . Standing, left to right: Sally Sue Stephenson, Helga Stirrud, Soozi Richardson, Harding Ragland.

SOPHOMORE HOCKEY TEAM

Seated, left to right: E. Claire Cunningham, Virginia Tucker, Annc Hayes, Lou McLaurin, Lady Major, Sister Davis, Sheely Little, Van Orr. . . . Knecling, left to right: Mary Gene Sims, Adele Dicckmann, Nancy Deal, Barbara Blair.

Hockey

SUB-VARSITY HOCKEY TEAM

Left to right: E. Claire Cunningham, B. J. Radford, Lady Major, Sally Sue Stephenson. . . . Absent from picture are Agnes Hamsberger, Louise Hoyt, Sister Davis, Virginia Tucker, Mary Price, Sally Ellis, Anne Hayes, Bunny Brannan.

FRESHMAN HOCKEY TEAM

Left to right: Julia Blake, Marie Cuthberson, Mary Price, Doris Sullivan, Frances Russell, Sally Ellis, Bunny Brannan.

JUNIOR HOCKEY TEAM

Kneeling, left to right: Mary Brown Mahon, Agnes Harnsberger, Chris Yates, Gene Goode, Jean Smoot, Marie Adams, B. A. Zeigler, Alice Newman. . . Standing, left to right: Helen Currie, Genet Heery, Louise Hoyt, B. J. Badford, Mac Craig.

Teams

Members of the varsity team.

First row, left to right: Janet Liddell, Bunny Brannan, Jean Smoot. . . . Second row, left to right: Mary Humphries, E. Claire Cunningham, Ruth Ryner, Reece Newton.

Jcan Smoot, basketball manager, has maintained campus interest in the weekly games.

Members of the senior team end an exciting career of four years. ... Sally Sue Stephenson, Scotty Johnson, Ruth Ryner, and Millie McCain.

Some of the sophomores practice free shots. They are Pagie Violete, Lou McLaurin, Betsy Powers, and E. Claire Cunningham.

Basket

Members of the sub-varsity team.

The Sub-Varsity. . . . First row, left to right: Genet Heery, Sally Sue Stephenson, Binky Stubbs. . . . Second row, left to right: Seotty Johnson, Millie McCain, Julianne Cook.

"But what can you do for recreation on those cold winter nights?" I inquire in a snoopy voice. "Well, there's the highlight of the winter sport season — basketball. The 1946 season opened with a match between the seniors and juniors, the sophomores and freshmen. The managers of each team, blindfolded, "chose" their opponent, after much coaxing from the sidelines. This first thrilling game set the fast pace that was maintained throughout the entire season.

Following the example set last year, outside referees officiated at each game. They were secured through funds raised at the Athletic Association bridge party.

The four class teams were rather evenly matched; so each game was a thriller to the spectators. Each class showed exceptionally high spirit, and large crowds cheered the teams. After a close race, the freshmen and juniors tied for first place. The climax of the season came with the varsity-sub-varsity game. The varsity had to keep on its toes to stay ahead of the fighting sub-varsity. Speaking of toes, there was a shoe contest between the halves of this game, and Nellie Scott became the proud possessor of a brand new pair of saddle shoes.

Some of the most exciting games of the year were played by the class B teams. With so much interest aroused by increased participation in games. next year's games should be tops in the sport light."

Some of the freshmen team are Bunny Brannan, Julianne Cook, Binky Stubbs, Reece Newton, Tillie Alexander.

Members of the junior team. . . . Ann Hough, B. J. Radford, Jean Smoot, Janet Liddell, Genet Heery, Ginny Dickson.

Margaret Scott is a skillful swimmer and a good manager.

"I'm so warm." I said and sighed. "Let's stop by the pool and talk to Scotty about the swimming club." During the fall quarter Swimming Club together with other outstanding swimmers worked on formations to be used in the annual pageant which was presented on November 27 and 28. The theme of the pageant was Christmas, and the swimmers represented Santa Claus, his elves and Christmas tovs. The costumes carried out the theme, and the music was favorite yuletide songs. The final formation was swum with candles.

Winter quarter tryonts were held for new members. On the basis of unusually good form, speed and endurance, and a knowledge of life saving and artificial respiration, Bunny Brannan, Betty Blackmon, Binky Stubbs, Jean Fraser, Ann Hayes, Jane Barker, and Ruth Richardson were accepted.

On February 7 the first inter-class swimming meet was held. The events included form swimming, speed swimming, freestyle dashes and relays, and diving. Miss Vogell from the University of Georgia and Mr. Ed Shea from Emory came over to judge with Mrs. Lapp. The sophomores placed first and the freshmen were second. The class managers who were responsible for the success of the meet were Bunny Brannan, freshman; Ann Sproesser, sophomore; Cooky Miller and Janet Liddell, junior; and Bettye Lee Phelps, senior. This was the only meet which counted for points towards the athletic cup which is awarded to the class winning the most athletic points during the

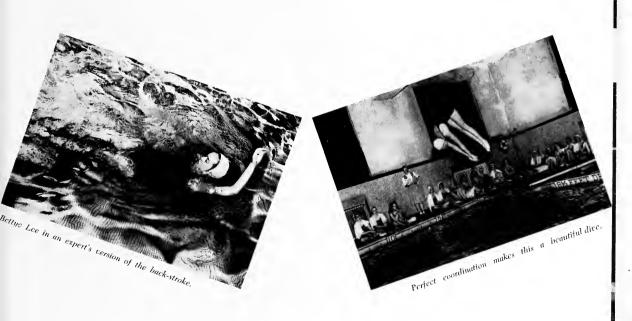

During the spring quarter Swimming Club sponsored an exhibition of swimming and diving for the annual High School day. Also during the final quarter, junior-senior and sophomorefreshmen teams competed in a swimming meet for fun.

The pool, always popular with students seeking to relieve tensions and to relax after classes and labs, was in constant use this year, and many developed new strokes and smoothed out the rough edges on the old ones.

Swimming Club

Snapped on the tennis court is Scotty Johnson, tennis manager.

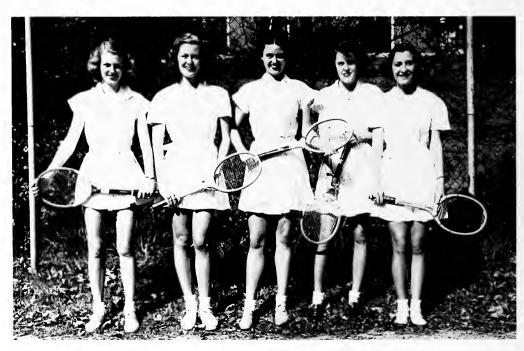

"Love-15—what can that mean? Love fifteen! That's entirely too many where I come from. Let me see. These must be the tennis courts they told me about. Yes, that's it—courts, love. Here comes one of the members now, so maybe I can learn something about this wonderful club."

"Yes, Aggie, we are members of the tennis club. We play tennis here on the courts in the fall until cold weather comes. This fall we started a doubles tournament, but rainy days prevented us finishing it. We did help a lot of new students to develop form, footwork, and to learn and understand the rules of the game. This spring we held tryouts for girls who wished to become members. You see, our members are selected for enthusiasm and interest, playing ability, and willingness to cooperate in helping others. Look over on the far court. The girl in white is helping the freshman brush up on her backhand and her serve. It's lots of fun to help others, but the greatest thrill comes in playing an evenly matched game. The girls on this court are playing the semi-finals in the singles tournament. They do not have to be members of the tennis club to enter the tournament. In fact, we try to get as many people to enter as possible, because the more the merrier. Everyone is interested in the finals match; so there should be a big crowd of spectators here."

"Well, I'm really interested. I'll come and lead the cheers. I can hear the crowd yelling 'Love-15.' What fun!"

"Aggie, you've caught the spirit, if not the sense, of the tennis club."

Tennis

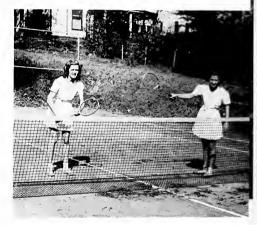

Members of the tennis club are, left to right: Jackie Stewart, Joan Crangle, Scotty Johnson, Anne Register, and Gloria Gaines.

Joan Crangle demonstrates serving technique.

Joan Crangle waits expectantly while Gloria Gaines returns a short volly.

Interested spectators watch the final set of a tennis class tournament.

Outing Club

"Now where could they be going—those girls with the blue jeans, sleeping bags, and food?" I asked. "They are members of the Outing Club starting out on an overnight hike. Just wait until you see them tomorrow! Tired but happy after a long hike, supper around the campfire, long talk and little sleep, they'll return. To become a member yon must pass a test on fundamental nature lore and first aid and show real enthusiasm for long hikes and outdoor cooking."

Riding

"Whoa, halt, stop—help! Oh, Mrs. Lapp! How can I get back on? Oh, what they told me about riding! They said it was one of the most popular fall and spring activities. Beginners learn the thrill of good riding in the training ring while advanced riders take to the trails for long jaunts. The highlights of the season come in the horse shows in which the form and skill perfected through practice is demonstrated to the crowds of spectators. Riders rejoice when they hear 'The horses are here!' Well, I'd be glad if this horse were here under me! There he goes — oh, Mrs. Lapp!"

Members of the Outing Club are, first rove, left to right: Bettye Lee Phelps, president; Margie Bond, Lorenna Ross, Mary Catherine Vinsant. . . . Second rove, left to right: Helen Currie, Anne Register, Caroline Squires, Louise Hoyt. . . Third row, left to right: Isabel Asbury, Carroll Taylor, Teddy Bear, Marjorie Naab, Martha Baker, Ann Seitzinger. . . Last row, left to right: Harriet Frierson, Sarah Walker, Sally Sue Stephenson, Herty McAllister.

Archery

"Whiz! Bang! 'Bull's-eye.' Creat Agnes Scott! Are they practicing to kill each other? Just what are they doing? They must be members of the Archery Club that during the season 1945-46 has tried to increase the interest in archery among the student body. Among its activities has been the organization of an archery team for members of the club who attain an exceptional skill. These members of the club have continued practice during spring quarter to improve their skill further so that they might place high in the annual Telegraphic Tournament for collegiate groups."

Volleyball

"That net's too high. My, I get more confused by the hour. Hey, miss, what gives out here? (That's "jive" for what is happening?) What funny basketball – no basket." "That's not basketball or tennis, Aggie, that's the queen of spring competitive sports, Volley Ball. Class the queen of spring competutive sports, volley ball. Class teams battle their way through the spring. Velley ball, a comparatively new sport on campus, is gradually taking its place with bockey and basketball. In the long spring afternoons, girls gather at the nets on the bockey field to try their hand at a game which requires real skill. If it rains, which it does, practices are held indoors, but the fun and excitement of a fast volley ball game is the same indoors and out."

Bowling

"Why don't you stay in the gym today? What sport can you play in Decatur that you can't play right here? Gosh, they don't even listen to me. There go about twelve of 'em - off to Decatur. Those girls belong to the bowling club, the "baby" athletic organization on campus. It was just started this year as a trial organization and if successful, it will become a full-fledged member of Athletic Association with a member on A. A. Board. The purpose of the club is to promote more interest and skill in bowling. Members are supposed to bowl at least once a week to develop skill so that later some may enter the National Bowling Tournament."

Badminton Club

"Why, this is a lot like indoor tennis—what are they playing?" "These are the members of the Badminton Club, Aggie. Badminton Club this year has tried to interest the campus in the game of badminton as recreation for fun and fitness, since it is suitable for many occasions in college and throughout later life. The club began its meetings in the fall and played once a week during winter quarter.

In addition to the annual doubles tournament, the club sponsored a singles tournament, won by Mac Craig, and Carolyn Gilchrist defended their title for the doubles championship.

championship.

The campus joined Badminton Club at open house in the gym twice during the year when exhibition games were played by club members.

Miss Ames, the instructor, won in a mixed doubles tourney at the Atlanta Athletic Club."

A team of volley ball players awaits Sarah Walker's serve.

It takes a steady eye to bowl over ten pins, and Bowling Club gives good practice. . . Left to right: Betzle Powers, Clarkie Rogers, Pagie Violette, June Driskill, Mary Manly, Fran Nininger.

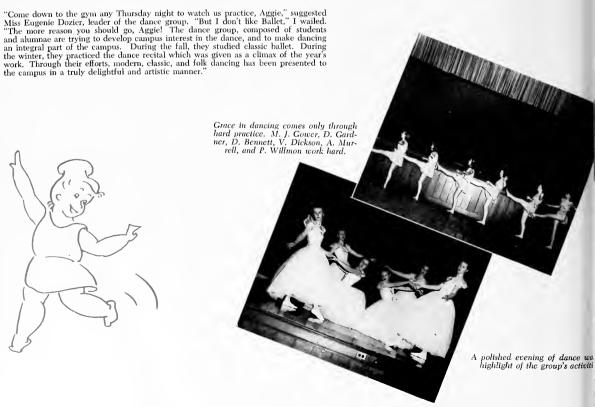

Members of Badminton Club: Jean Smoot, Betty Allen, Mary Ann Courtenay, manager; Cosy Wadlington, Jean Williams, Chris Yates. . . . Standing: Helen Currie, Mac Craig, Mia Gage.

Members of the dance group posing here are kneeling, left to right: Dale Bennett, Virginia Dickson, Martha Jean Gower. . . . Behind them are, left to right: Ellen Rosenblatt, Dootsie Gardner, Anne Murrell, Peggy Willmon.

The Dance Group

Happy owners of the Agnes Scott Pin and Guard are Scotty Johnson, Sally Sue Stephenson, Sarah Walker, Bettye Lee Phelps, and Ann Hough.

Wearers of the Pin and Guard

"Oh," I screamed, "those adorable pins - A. S. - that must stand for Agnes Scott. Why do so many girls here at the gym wear them?

"Well, Aggie," Sarah replied, "Winter and spring quarter each year, A. S. pins and guards are awarded to the girls who have accumulated the required number of points in athletics. The number of points that even a pin requires, is 1600, and a guard may be obtained with an additional 1200 points. These points must be won in more than one sport; sportsmanship and enthusiasm are also considered. The girls who have been outstanding in "athletic feats" and have won these honors are:

BETTY Andrews - Pin won in spring of '45. Class of '47. Tennis – winner of doubles tournament two years. Runner up in singles one year. Basketball – Varsity 3 years. Swimming – Club. A. A. Board – Tennis manager.

ANN HOUGH—Pin in spring of '45. Class of '47. Tennis—Doubles winner 2 years; singles winner 1 year; singles runner-up. Archery Club. Basketball—Varsity 3 years. Hockey—team. Volley ball—team. A. A. Board—secretary.

Scotty Johnson – Pin in spring of '45. Class of '46. Tennis Club. Basketball – Sub-varsity, 2 years; varsity, 1 year. Hockey – Sub-varsity, 1 year; varsity, 2 years. A. A. Board – 2 years; hockey manager, tennis manager.

JANET LIDDELL – Pin in winter of '46. Class of '47. Swimming – Sub-varsity, 1 year; Varsity, 2 years, Club. Basketball – Sub-varsity, 2 years; varsity, 1 year. Volley ball – Sub-varsity, 1 year.

MILDRED McCain - Pin in winter of '46. Class of '46. Basket-

All Deep Michael Phil Wilder of 46. Class of 46. Basketball – Varsity, 2 years, sub-varsity, 1 year. Volley ball – Varsity, 2 years. Hockey – Sub-varsity, 1 year.

Bettye Lee Phelps – Pin in winter of 45; guard in winter of 46. Class of 46. Swimming Club – Varsity, 4 years. Outing Club. Hockey team. Basketball – Sub-varsity, 2 years. A. A.

ROTH RYNER – Pin in winter of '46. Class of '46. Basketball – Varsity, 1 year; sub-varsity, 2 years. Tennis – Club. Hockey –

Jean Smoot - Pin in winter of '46. Class of '47. Basketball Varsity, 2 years; sub-varsity, 1 year. Hockey - Varsity, 2 years; sub-varsity, 1 year. Badminton - Club. A. A. Board -Basketball manager.

SALLY SUE STEPHENSON — Pin in spring of '45. Guard in winter of '46. Class of '46. Volley Ball — Varsity, 2 years; sub-varsity, 1 year, Saketball — Varsity, 1 year; sub-varsity, 3 years. Swimming — Varsity, 1 year; sub-varsity, 1 year; Club. Outing Club. Hockey — Sub-varsity, 2 years. A. A. Board — 4 years freehous representative sub-lister transports. years; freshman representative; publicity; treasurer; vice-president.

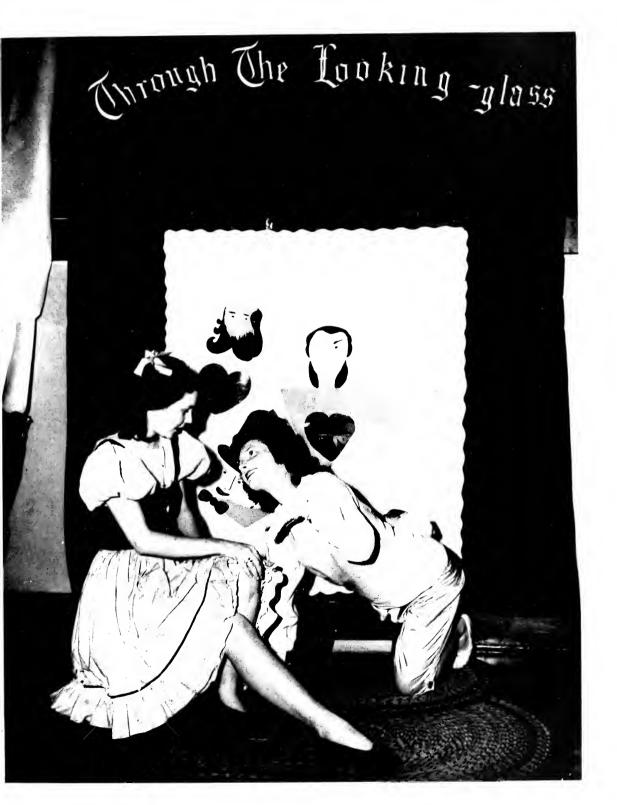

SARAH WALKER — Pin in spring of '45. Class of '46. Volley Ball — Varsity, 3 years. Basketball — Team. Outing Club. Hockey — Sub-varsity, 1 year; yarsity, 3 years; hockey stick.

A. A. Board — 3 years; volleyball; secretary; president.
Soozi Richardson — Pin in winter of '46. Class of '46.
Swimming — Varsity, 1 year. Basketball — Sub-varsity, 1 year.
Hockey — Varsity, 2 years. A. A. Board — Hockey manager.

Always there are special things to appreciate. Beauty is one of them. And so are memories of particular days, friends, and events. I hope I've recaptured some of the magic in the . . .

Features

Our judge-Paul Hesse, whose portraits of Hollywood stars are fabulous.

Shirley Graves Cochrane

Julianne Cook

Mary Manly

Miriam Arnold

Nancy Deal

Betty Davison

Elizabeth Williams

Margaret Bear

Jean Frazer

Mary Jane Fuller

Shirlee Lengerich

Mary Beth Little

Gloria Anne Melchor

Sally Sue Stephenson

Betty Jurner

Pagie Violette

Aggie's Memoirs

"In September...

we arrived. Yes, we arrived, a bit bewildcred and a little in awe of the girls who screamed and yelled and hugged and kissed each other in a performance that couldn't even be equalled by any of my friends or relatives! Maybe we of the original Hottentot clan are not nearly as heathen as legend makes us out to be. Of course that three day siege of waiting in lines for anything and everything you wanted was a little discouraging, but once we were settled we really buzzed along. Miss Scandrett took me under her wing and sent me off on a rollicking start. Over in Inman we newcomers soon fell into the swing of college life, and the old girls backed us up all the way. Ah, college days — there is nothing like them, I am convinced. Even our introduction to real "book-learning" was a thrill to one of my background. Whee, wait till I write home about this — our drum-to-drum hook-up will really beat it out to all parts of our jungle!"

School days again - and reunion with favorite pals!

The mail room is the all-important link with home and THE one.

Fun-loving students can't resist the beautiful leaves!

Miss Scandrett gives invaluable advice to bewildered frosh.

One thing you can't get away from — BOOKS.

"Pagie," "Sis," and Bobbe were full of vitality as Soph cheerleaders at the Stunt.

Hockey affects different people in different ways.

"In October ...

things started popping. Everything from the hockey games to the Black Cat Stunt kept us running. There is no end to the activity around here—leaves me rather speechless. No, I guess that's impossible. But, anyway, take this game called hockey, with sticks, balls, and screaming girls everywhere on that huge field — how I wish the folks back home could see it! Our tribal wars are calm in comparison. And then the Black Cat Stunt — that was the highlight of the month. The Freshmen and Sophomores really battled it out. For weeks everyone whispered class secrets, and for weeks everyone painted, rehearsed, collected properties, and did all the other jobs required for this "stunt of all stunts." The big night came and the Sophomores won — but not without competition. We Freshmen are still a little awed by this life, I have to admit, although we do our best to give the impression of old-timers."

"In November ...

Rain or shine, Investiture is an impressive ceremony.

my calendar was jam-packed full of things to do. We didn't stop long enough to catch a breath; it was just one thing after another. With me giving the cues from backstage, Blackfriars presented "Pride and Prejudice" — a superb performance. The equestriennes displayed their talents at the first Agnes Scott horseshow in many a year. Cotillion Club had their wonderful party over at the Tea House — with men. Pi Alpha Phi played hostess to the All Southern Debate Tournament, another new annual event on our campus. It was the Seniors' month really. "Tissy 'Bout Through' for them, and they burned the effigy the night before Investiture to prove it. What a gruesome sight that was! Then the rains came for Investiture, but no spirits were dampened. The Seniors were the happy gals. And so another month was marked off the little C. A. calendar and we were off to new adventures"

Miss Leyburn is a gracious example of the ideals of a liberal arts college.

Pretty girls, good-looking boys at Cotillion Club's party.

Swimming Club's water-pageant captured the very spirit of Christmas.

"In December ...

for the first time, I saw some real snow. I wasn't the only one who considered these 'soap flakes' from heaven a miracle. There were lots of these Southern gals who were just as thrilled as I was. And with snow on the ground the Swimming Club presented its Christmas Pageant. What a wonderful sight that was! I bet there aren't many people who have seen Santa Claus in a bathing suit. Brrr! Of course the Christmas Holidays were the 'dream of the month,' but before we dared shut our eyes there were several obstacles to overcome – such as exams! For us Freshman these were the first, and I'll have to admit that my knees turned to water when Miss Jackson asked us to trace the history of the church. But we managed to survive the week, and then it was only a matter of how fast the taxi could carry us to the station before we were boarding the train for the sentimental journey home. Of course my 'home' was with friends this time, but it was a 'Merry Christmas for all and for all a good night.'"

"In January...

we were tempted to fall into the depths of mid-winter despondency, which seemed inevitable after such a wonderful three weeks Christmas vacation. But we Freshman were kept too busy even to think about home. This was really our month. First there were the parties sponsored by Mortar Board and given by our 'big sisters,' the Juniors. There were barn dances, hayrides, and picnics all with men. Who could ask for anything more? Then the Junior Class gave a tea for us over in Murphey Candler, and we got all dressed up in our party clothes to enjoy this extra hospitality. I was 'specially busy, cause the Silhouette snap-shot contest gave me a chance to snoop into everyone's collection and get some good blackmail material! You can see that it was a busy time, not considering the fact that books and papers were staring us in the face. But then, that's all a part of college life, and we love it."

Butch and the pup lead a dog's life! Honorable mention for best character study goes to "Frankie" Francisco.

Maybe she doesn't believe in signs! First prize goes to Bonnie Hope.

"... comes Saturday night." Honorable mention for most unexpected snapshot goes to Lou McLaurin and Ann Patterson.

Velvety whiteness accentuates the graceful sweep of the drive. Honorable mention for best scenic snapshot of the campus goes to Betty Jean Ellison.

Dream landscape in Susan Neville's native Brazil. Honorable mention for the most unusual scenic snapshot goes to Susan Neville.

Charm and dignified beauty – the spirit of the South. Honorable mention for most effective composition goes to Mary Gene Sims.

King Fraser and Queen Cook, radiant rulers of the Junior Joint.

Dr. Lowry won the warm appreciation of the whole campus with his personality and his intellect.

Lecture Association entertained beloved Robert Frost at a luncheon during his visit.

38A Free

". . . gct set - Go!" at the swimming meet.

The wet-shirt relay was sticky, but hilarious!

"In February ...

the campus really saw action. Life and spirits started picking up, and everybody was working on either the Junior Joint or the swimming meet. There wasn't a dull moment. Lecture Association brought both Dr. Lowry and 'our own' Robert Frost to talk to us. On Founder's Day Agnes Scott broke into the news with a radio program. This was the month for Valentines too, and I wish everyone could have seen the dietitian's handiwork in the dining room for our Valentine's Day dinner. It was really a work of art. Of course the Junior Joint was the big event of the month. We all took a journey 'Through the Looking Glass' and found Alice in Wonderland in the gym. This was another time for the Freshmen to shine, too—our King and Queen won. Then came the swimming meet, the only one of the year; so everybody worked hard to win. It was the Sophomores who came out on top! Now everyone has settled down for the next event on the calendar—another set of exams. And so it goes."

"In March ...

we had a busy time — like every other month only more so. When exams and vacations come all at once, it's inevitable that the Hottentots will be in a dither, and we were! First, we watched the Dance Group trip the light fantastic on the stage of Presser in their interpretation of Chopin's 'Les Sylphydes' and Liszt's 'Hungarian Rhapsody.' Then we left the aesthetic to return to the reality of examinations. But we quickly conquered them and dashed for the quickest mode of transportation to carry us home for six unforgettable days of vacation. Of course all good things must come to an end, and we were soon back behind the books again, with only sentimental memories of home. But before March roared out, the Glee Club did itself proud in Gilbert and Sullivan's 'The Pirates of Penzance.' Collaborating with the Georgia Tech boys, they performed both here and at Tech. And so another month was but a memory with the thoughts of spring ahead."

Almost professional skill characterized the evening of dance.

"He is the very model of a modern major-general!"

Gorgeous daughters of the major-general found romance with a soft-hearted pirate crew.

The first post-war Junior Banquet was a brilliant success!

Grown men reverted to their child-hood under the strange influence of "Hotel Universe."

"In April ...

the flowers popped up, the dogwood bloomed, and fancies turned to thoughts of — what else! In other words, spring was here. But of course classes continued to beckon us to Buttrick and the Science Hall, and the Library continued its role of an irresistible force. That is the inevitable part of this college life. But there were such things as Blackfriars' production of 'Hotel Universe' to take our minds off our troubles. And the big moment for the Juniors, the first Junior Banquet in three years, came off in top style — with dancing in Murphey Candler (the first on the Agnes Scott campus) after filet mignon. What a thrill that was! The English department brought the inimitable John Mason Brown to inform us of the latest in literature and drama. All in all we enjoyed those four weeks, but spring or winter there is one thing that continues to puzzle me about Georgia:

Spring is sprung,
The grass is riz,
I wonder where the sunshine is.
But then I comfort myself with the thought:
April showers
Bring May flowers."

Beautiful girls, handsome boys, and fun GALORE at the Junior Banquet.

"These moon people MUST get ORGANIZED!"

"In May ...

the world was beautiful, life was exciting, and school was rushing to a climax. Early in the month we went 'back to the Greeks' for May-Day. We had not only the Queen and her lovely maids, but also every god and goddess on Olympus throned in glory. For the Seniorpolitan Opera we went clear up to the moon. Oh, we really got around in May, believe me! Reinhold Neibuhr, philosopher and lecturer extraordinary returned to the campus for another provocative address. A lucky few were tapped and initiated into that most mysterious of all organizations — Phi Beta Kappa. But the thing that really impressed me was incessant exam-taking! Sophs and seniors spent two solid days gnawing pencils and tearing hair over experimental graduate record exams. Then the seniors plunged into those final finals. Underclassmen followed suit a week later, and then – summer! June, graduation, weddings, house-parties, and the happy memories of my first year at Agnes Scott."

Mighty Hades and his attendants, straight from the underworld.

Bride and groom plight solemn troth as Hera blesses them

The moon people knew the real values of life — the scientific expedition members didn't.

Love'y Dootsie Gardver, chairman of May-Day and graceful participant in it.

- breathtaking color in fall -

- downy snow in winter -

"And I want to remember ... "

- strange inspiration at twilight -

- exquisite dogwood in spring -

- and memories of comradeship as the future opens its door.

ADVERTISEMENTS

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE

HOTEL, RESTAURANT & SUPPLY CO., INC.

ALLAN-GOLDBERG REALTY CO.

IRVINGDALE FARMS, INC.

J. P. ALLEN & CO.

LANE DRUG STORES

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

LIPSCOMB-ELLIS CO.

ATLANTA LAUNDRIE'S, INC.

LOVABLE BRASSIERE CO.

WALTER BALLARD OPTICAL CO.

MAIER AND BERKELE, INC.

BAME'S, INC.

MORGAN CLEANERS

BINDER'S

MONTAG BROTHERS, INC.

BEAUTY CRAFTS, INC.

NEALS' MILLINERY

BOWEN, LONG AND YOUNG

NU-GRAPE BOTTLING CO.

COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY

PHOTO-PROCESS ENGRAVING CO.

DAVISON'S

REGENSTEIN'S PEACHTREE

DECATUR THEATRE

REMINGTON-RAND, INC.

DeKALB THEATRE

RHODES LOCKHART

DRAUGHON SCHOOL OF COMMERCE

SAYWARD AND LOGAN

VERNON FRANK'S

STERCHI'S

MYRON E. FREEMAN & BRO.

J. P. STEVENS ENGRAVING CO.

GILL CLEANER'S

THREADGILL PHARMACY

GORDON FOOD, INC.

ERNEST P. TOMLINSON

THE VARSITY

Compliments

...of...

BEAUTY CRAFTS, INC.

THE VARSITY

FRESH FOODS

-Curb Service-

"All the Better Things of Life"

THREADGILL PHARMACY

THE PRESCRIPTION STORE

DEarborn 1665

309 E. College Ave.

Decatur, Ga.

Your Nearest Drug Store

Furnishing Southern Homes for Over 6 Years

Sterchi's

Georgia Stores

ATLANTA ATHENS

DALTON

MACON ROME

SAYWARD AND LOGAN

ARCHITECTS

For the New Music Building

•

Atlanta

Georgia

DEarborn 8121

Post Office Box 8

Compliments of

DEKALB THEATRE

"The Theatre of Friendly Service"

First Run Pictures for DeKalb County

DE. 8121

James Taylor, Manager

... USE ...

MONTAG'S FASHIONABLE WRITING PAPERS

and

BLUE HORSE STUDENTS' SUPPLIES

Made in Atlanta by

MONTAG BROTHERS, INC.

"A Growin' All the Time"

Phone DEarborn 7261 740 East Lake Drive

VERNON FRANK'S

DECATUR FLOWER SHOP

Phone DEarborn 3309 301 Church Street

IN ATLANTA

EIGHTEEN CONVENIENTLY LOCATED STORES TO SERVE YOU!

LANE DRUG STORES
"Always the Best"

COMPLIMENTS

 $\dots OF\dots$

LOVABLE BRASSIERE CO.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

We provide the Scriptures without profit, in 1,062 languages or dialects.

85 Walton Street, N. W.

Atlanta

Georgia

ALLAN-GOLDBERG REALTY CO.

30 N. Pryor Street, N. E.

Atlanta

DRINK

NU-GRAPE SODA

"THE FLAVOR YOU CAN'T FORGET"

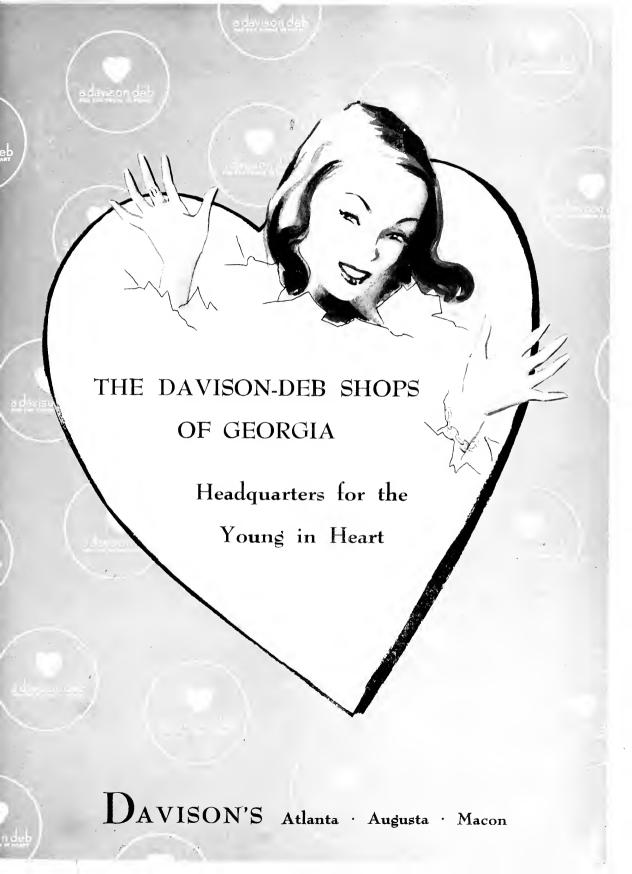

GILL CLEANERS

DRY CLEANING

Phones: DE. 4426 - CR. 4023

126 Clairmont Ave.

Decatur, Ga.

RADIOS AND ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES

BAME'S. INC.

60 Broad St., N. W.

Phone WA 5776

PHONOGRAPH RECORDS

Compliments of

RHODES LOCKHART

1636 Jonesboro Drive, S. E.

Atlanta

Georgia

Ballard's

DISPENSING OPTICIANS

WALTER BALLARD OPTICAL COMPANY

Three Stores

105 Peachtree Street, N. E. Medical Arts Building W. W. Orr Doctors' Building EARBOOKS

115 - 119 LUCKIE STREET X ATLANTA GEORGIA

REGENSTEIN'S PEACHTREE

THE SOUTH'S

Individual

SPECIALTY SHOP

209 PEACHTREE STREET

ATLANTA

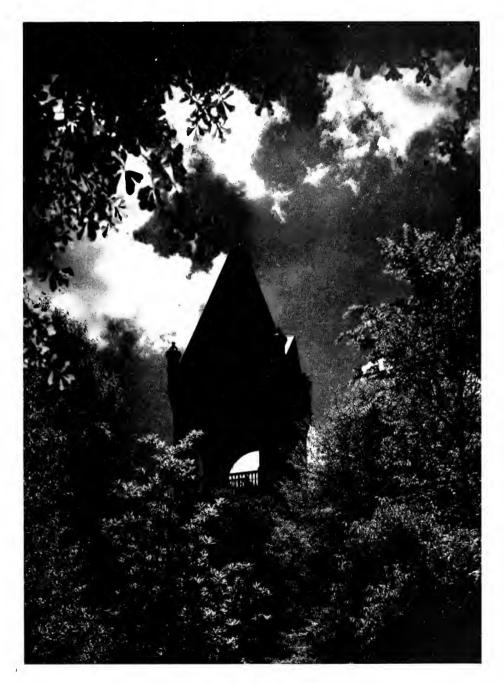

GOLD SHIELD LAUNDRIES

For over half a century Gold Shield's service to Atlanta homes represents a solid background of efficient, satisfactory laundering and cleaning performance.

AMERICAN	MA. 1016
PIEDMONT	WA. 7651
CAPITAL CITY-TRIO	VE. 4711
GUTHMAN	WA. 866I
DECATUR	DE. 1606
MAY'S-TROY	_HE. 5300
EXCELSIOR	WA. 2454

Looking for an A.B.,
M.A. or MRS.? You'li Go Farther in Our Clever "219" Fashions

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE

DECATUR, GEORGIA

WEDDING MEMORIES

THER? is no event in life quite so important as the wedding. As such it is deserving of all the dignified atmosphere with which it is surrounded, and every detail in its celebration is worthy of meticulous attention. Of these, none reflects more distinction than the quality and character of the wedding stationery. Stevens' genuine engraving and Crane's fine papers confer this distinction with that grace and assurance that comes from more than 60 years of producing fine engraved stationery.

LONG in the memory of the bride will be the happy recollection that her welding cards were perfect in every detail, reflecting her own taste and personality. May we help you in this important feature of your wedding?

J. P. STEVENS ENGRAVING CO.

110 Peachtree Street

ATLANTA

171 PEACHTREE STREET

ERNEST P. TOMLINSON JEWELRY

22 Auburn Avenue WAlnut 3089

For Office Machines, Furniture and Business Systems . . .

CONSULT

REMINGTON RAND, INC.

342 Peachtree Street

Atlanta, Ceorgia

Whatsina!

- DEPENDABILITY, Registered Jewelers with American Gem Society
 - VISION, LOOK confidently to Maier & Berkele . . . tomorrow
 - EXPERIENCE, Over half a century in business
 - KNOWLEDGE That comes with specialization
 - INTEGRITY, Traditionally high standards

Maier & Berkele

JEWELERS TO THE SOUTH SINCE 1887

Compliments

...of...

A FRIEND

Compliments of

Your Friendly

DEKALB

A Community Theatre

DEarborn 8121

J. W. Alston, Mgr.

MORGAN CLEANERS AND LAUNDRY

213 Atlanta Avenue

Decatur

Georgia

Many of the outstanding Draughon graduates are Agnes Scott Alumni. Entrance requirements—high school graduation and character references. All Draughon graduates placed in good positions.

THE DRAUGHON SCHOOL OF COMMERCE

Erlanger Building

579 Peachtree St., N. E.

Atlanta 3, Georgia

Compliments

HOTEL AND RESTAURANT SUPPLY CO., INC.

Manufacturers and Distributors of Complete KITCHEN AND DINING ROOM EQUIPMENT

Buy Direct

CONSULT OUR ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT FOR PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS AND PRICES

Phone WAlnut 7451

Write: 382 West Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Georgia

LOOK FOR THE RED TRUCK . . . THEN BUY

Cakes: Candies: Assorted Nuts: Salted Peanuts Peanut Butter Sandwiches: Potato Chips

GORDON FOODS

"Trucks Serving the South"

Compliments of

MINNIE QUARTS

AND

RICHARD L. HULL

IRVINGDALE FARMS, INC.

Compliments ... of ...

LIPSCOMB ELLIS CO.

INSURANCE REAL ESTATE

ATLANTA

GEORGIA

Compliments of

BINDER'S

74 Broad Street

Atlanta

Georgia

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The staff of the 1946 Silhouette wishes to express its sincere appreciation to all the people who have made this annual possible by their interest and co-operation: Miss Helen Morgan, Mr. Charles Young, Bradley-McCord, our advertisers, and the students of the college.

THE EDITOR and BUSINESS MANAGER

ANNUALS DISTINCTION

BOWEN, LONG AND YOUNG Atlanta

